Imagine getting all of your housework done while your child plays or happily helps alongside you. Imagine truly enjoying your time with your child and creating a life that feels fulfilling for both of you. These things are possible for parents and children, asserts author Faith Collins, even with a child who is extra sensitive, demanding, needy, belligerent, or all at the same time. Collins is a preschooler teacher, parent coach, and mother who has witnessed such transformations repeatedly over many years. Her book is a treasury that provides readers with powerful, practical, and positive tools to achieve harmony and joy in their own families. Her blog and popular online classes are available at <http://joyfultoddlers.com>. The unique contribution of this book is its focus on creating a mutually responsive relationship, meaning that both people respond quickly and positively to each other, even when they cannot do what the other person wants. In a warm and easygoing style, the author guides parents and caregivers in establishing and maintaining such mutually responsive relationships with their young ones, creating the basis for discipline, education, socialization, and a happier life together. Helping our children to develop these skills becomes a game changer in all parent-child dynamics. Rare and precious, Faith's book will very likely leave you feeling, "Yes, I can do this!"
