Improbable Scholars David L. Kirp, 2015 In Improbable Scholars David L. Kirp challenges the conventional wisdom about public schools and education reform in America through an in depth look at Union City New Jersey's high performing urban school district In this compelling study Kirp reveals Union's city's revolutionary secret running an exemplary school system doesn't demand heroics just hard and steady work

NJ ASK Practice Tests - Mathematics Grade 7 Lumos Learning, 2009-09-29 Inside this book you will find three full length practice tests that are similar to the NJ ASK Completing these tests will help students master the different areas that are included in the New Jersey Core Curriculum Standards and practice test taking skills The results will help the students and educators get insights into students strengths and weaknesses in particular content areas These insights could be used to help students strengthen their skills in difficult topics and to improve speed and accuracy while taking the test Throughout the school year teachers could use these tests or parts of these tests in their class room training to help students learn different topics and build test taking skills

If Einstein Ran the Schools Thomas Armstrong Ph.D., 2019-10-11 Many world class thinkers and creators have been concerned about the state of education in the United States Discover their thoughts on how children really learn and what teachers must do to optimally tap children's latent abilities During the last three decades education reformers have pushed standardized testing and policies like No Child Left Behind and Common Core to improve test scores and proficiency in basic skills However during this period that author Thomas Armstrong calls the miseducation of America a number of troubling trends have surfaced including a decrease in creative thinking scores among children in kindergarten through third grade Rather than focus on what's wrong with the education system that has produced these outcomes Armstrong lays out what creative thinkers know about how children should be educated In an extended thought experiment he asks what would happen if we turned the reins of educational policy over not to the politicians and educational bureaucrats but to eminent thinkers and creators like Albert Einstein Pablo Picasso Martin Luther King Jr Rachel Carson Doris Lessing Jane Goodall and other seminal culture builders What might they say about the best way to educate a child If Einstein Ran the Schools suggests that the answers to this intriguing question should guide future efforts to reform our nation's schools
