Modern Studies in Property Law - Volume 7 Nicholas Hopkins, 2013-07-31 This book contains a collection of peer reviewed papers presented at the ninth biennial Modern Studies in Property Law conference held at the University of Southampton in March 2012 It is the 7th volume to be published under the name of the conference The conference and its published proceedings have become an established forum for property lawyers from around the world to showcase current research in the discipline This collection reflects both the breadth of modern research in property law and its international dimensions Incorporating a keynote address by Lord Walker of Gestingthorpe retired Justice of the Supreme Court on The Saga of Strasbourg and Social Housing a number of chapters reveal the burgeoning influence of human rights in property law Other contributions illustrate an enduring need to question and explore fundamental concepts of the subject alongside new and emerging areas of study

Collectively the chapters demonstrate the importance and relevance of property research in addressing a wide range of contemporary issues

The Making of Intellectual Property Law in Vietnam Tran Kien, 2025-09-03 This book is about the making of intellectual property law in Vietnam across colonial and socialist space and time from 1864 to 1994 It provides a completely new provoking narrative disproving previously published scholarship which claimed that there was no intellectual property law in Vietnam during the colonial and socialist periods In doing so the book engages with an emerging field of historiographical inquiry into the intellectual property law history in Vietnam and worldwide which investigates how and why the scholarship about the history of intellectual property law has been construed and framed as such within a specific period and space This book is comprised of three knowledge components The first involves the reconstruction of the lost intellectual property law from 1864 to 1994 in Vietnam doctrinally Relying on newly discovered archives in Vietnam and worldwide it unravels a corpus of statutory and regulatory provisions and interesting at times contradictory juridical decisions that governed and interpreted copyright patent and trademark The second is the historiographical inquiry of the making of the intellectual property law history scholarship in Vietnam This will answer the questions of how and why the particular histories had been construed and framed as such at a particular time This involves the debate about sociopolitical ideologies underlying the meaning and application of the laws most notably colonialism and socialism Finally the third engages with the theory of legal transplantation It addresses a hypothetical question of colonial laboratory as a form of legal transplantation a new concept that this book offers to the global scholarship It demonstrates that the colonial empire had tried to use Vietnam as a laboratory for its legal reform and then transplanted the successful and feasible results back to the empire This book explains the distinctively ideological principles underlying the understanding and application of the law
