The Future of Creation Order Gerrit Glas, Jeroen de Ridder, 2018-01-12 This work provides an overview of attempts to assess the current condition of the concept of creation order within reformational philosophy compared to other perspectives Focusing on the natural and life sciences and theology this first volume of two examines the arguments for and against the beauty coherence and order shown in the natural world being related to the will or nature of a Creator It examines the decay of a Deist universe and the idea of the pre givenness of norms laws and structures as challenged by evolutionary theory and social philosophy It describes the different responses to the collapse of order that given by Christian philosophy scholars who still argue for the idea of a pre given world order and that of other scholars who see this idea of stable creation order and or natural law as redundant and in need of a thorough rethinking It studies the particular role that reformational philosophy has played in the discussion It shows how ever since its inception almost a century ago the concepts of order and law principle structure have been at the heart of this philosophy and that one way to characterise this tradition is as a philosophy of creation order Reformational philosophers have maintained the notion of law as holding for reality This book discusses the questions that have arisen about the nature of such law is it a religious or philosophical concept does law just mean orderliness How does it relate to laws of nature Have they always existed or do they emerge during the process of evolution

The Bible, Centres and Margins Johanna Stiebert, Musa W. Dube, 2018-08-23 There has rarely been an effort to address the missing dialogue between British and African scholars including in regard to the role of British missionaries during the introduction of the Bible and Christianity to many parts of Africa To break this silence Musa W Dube and Johanna Stiebert collect expressions from both emerging and established biblical scholars in the United Kingdom and predominantly southern African states Divided into three sets of papers these contributions range from the injustices of colonialism to postcolonial critical readings of texts suppression and appropriation each section complete with a responding essay Questioning how well UK students understand Africancentred and generated approaches of biblical criticism whether African scholars consider UK centric criticism valid and how accurately the western canon represents current UK based scholarship these essays illustrate the trends and challenges faced in biblical studies in the two centres of study and discusses how these questions are better answered with dialogue rather than in isolation

The Meaning and Interpretation of Desire in the Bible Samo Skralovnik,2022-08-23 The term desire in the Hebrew Bible covers a wide range of human longings emotions and cravings The direct and explicit term of desire is nevertheless limited to only two roots found in the Decalogue the verb forms of the lexical roots and which reflect not only the dynamics of desire occurring in human beings but also in God With an comprehensive semantic analysis and an overview of the synonyms and antonyms the author shows that the verb form of the lexical root denotes a variety of needs related to human existence including aspiration for God while the verb form of the lexical root denotes the desire to acquire material wealth and possessions beyond basic needs All the findings are compared on two levels in relation to human beings objects and people and in relation to God and ultimately serve for the interpretation of the roots in both versions of the Decalogue Exod 20 17 and Deut 5 21 to resolve questions concerning the meaning of the desire in Tenth Commandment and substantiate whether the answers to life s questions provided by the Bible correspond to modern society

Introduction to the Hebrew Bible John J. Collins,2025-05-06 John J Collins s Introduction to the Hebrew Bible is one of the most reliable and widely adopted critical textbooks at undergraduate and graduate levels alike and for good reason Enriched by decades of classroom teaching it is aimed explicitly at motivated students regardless of their previous exposure to the Bible or faith commitments The approach is ecumenical in the sense that it seeks not to impose any particular theological perspective but to provide information and raise questions that should be relevant to any student Collins proceeds through the canon of the Old Testament and the Apocrypha judiciously presenting the current state of historical archaeological and literary understanding of the biblical text and engaging the student in questions of significance and interpretation for the contemporary world The fourth edition is supplemented in areas that go beyond historical criticism and answer questions crucial for students today John J Collins discusses the issues that arise when studying the Hebrew Bible that aren t always addressed in introductory textbooks The issues discussed include gender patriarchy social justice violence race and ethnicity environment salvation and death the messiah and colonialism In addition to the new essays John J Collins has updated bibliographies to include the most recent scholarship that students and professors need to know

Marked Quotations from Psalms in the Gospel of Matthew Piotr Herok, 2023-12-04 There are five marked quotations from Psalms in the Gospel of Matthew These are 1 Ps 91 1 12 in Matt 4 6 2 Ps 78 2 in Matt 13 35 3 Ps 8 3 in Matt 21 16 4 Ps 118 22 23 in Matt 21 42 and 5 Ps 110 1 in Matt 22 44 Piotr Herok argues that the investigated texts are related to each other not only by the presence of the introductory formulas making clear that a given citation comes from Scripture but also through mutual thematic convergence concerning in various degrees king David the temple and the theme of Jesus identity Thanks to the new literary context in which the quotations are embedded Matthew reinterprets them significantly while giving them a new dimension clearly distinguishing them from the rest of the psalm quotations found in his work This aims at presenting Jesus as not only the Son of David but first of all the Son of God Every Good Path Andrew Errington, 2019-12-26 Andrew Errington brings the book of Proverbs into discussion with two significant accounts of the nature and foundation of practical reason in Christian ethics those of Thomas Aquinas and Oliver O Donovan Aiming to move towards a framework for understanding Christian moral reasoning this book develops a significant critique of aspects of Aquinas's thought and provides a major engagement with O Donovan's moral theology Errington argues that the way the Book of Proverbs conceives of wisdom presents an important challenge to the Western theological and philosophical tradition Instead of a perfection of theoretical knowledge wisdom in Proverbs is a practical knowledge of how to act well grounded in the reality of the world God has made Discussing the complexities of practical reason moral reasoning in Aquinas world order and deliberation in the work of O Donovan and the place of created order in Christian Ethics this volume is invaluable for scholars and general readers in reconfiguring moral theology
