nationalism It also underscores the protests of the subordinate police an area which has so far remained unexplored By foregrounding the police s interface with nationalism and its varied trends the study problematizes both the accepted view of the state s subordinates as being effectively integrated with the colonial state and their identity as agents of the state The study also reveals that nationalism was not merely an attempt to eject the British nor was it simply a political struggle for power Rather it was also a hegemonic contestation with colonialism but one within which the counterhegemonic struggle of nationalism was also intertwined with the contest for hegemony within Indian society
