Protecting Jerusalem's Holy Sites A Strategy For Negotiating A Sacred Peace:

Protecting Jerusalem's Holy Sites David E. Guinn, 2006-10-02 The holy sites in Jerusalem exist as objects of international veneration and sites of nationalist contest. They stand at the heart of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict yet surprisingly the many efforts to promote peace mostly by those outside the Middle East have ignored the problem. This 2006 book seeks to address this omission by focusing upon proposals of development of a legal regime to protect the holy sites separable from the final peace negotiations to not only protect the holy sites but promote peace by removing these particularly volatile icons from the field of conflict. Peace and the protection of the holy sites cannot occur without the consent and co-operation of those on the ground. This book supports local involvement by developing a comprehensive plan for how to negotiate, outlining the relevant history, highlighting issues of import and identifying effective strategies for promoting negotiation.

Protecting the Sacred, Creating Peace in Asia-Pacific Chaiwat Satha-Anand, 2017-07-05 Using case studies from the Middle East, South Asia, Southeast Asia and the Pacific Basin, this book examines the global trend of violence against religious places and figures. The contributors believe attacks on sacred places to be particularly damaging to peace and harmony because of the centrality of religion in many Asian and Pacific countries. A diverse range of topics are covered including an empirical exploration of the global trends of violence against sacred spaces, attacks against and policies toward holy sites in Israel and the Palestinian Territories, the fate of Indian Islamic monuments after India gained independence in 1947, the Christian community's response to the increasing Islamization of Malaysia and the future of communalism in Malaysia. Africa and Australia are also referenced in the work. Taken together, this volume explores the importance of protecting sacred spaces, holy symbols and religious people as a crucial element in fostering peace in the world and especially the Asia-Pacific region. The contributors argue that much of the violence in the world is rooted in politics of religious identity.

The Contest and Control of Jerusalem's Holy Sites Marshall J. Breger, Leonard M. Hammer, 2023-08-17 The Holy Places of Jerusalem's Old City are among the most contested sites in the world and the ground zero of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. Tensions regarding control are rooted in misperceptions over the status of the sites, the role of external bodies such as religious organizations and civil society and misunderstanding regarding the political roles of the many actors associated with the sites. In this volume, Marshall J. Breger and Leonard M. Hammer clarify a complex and fraught situation by providing insight into the laws and rules pertaining to Jerusalem's holy sites. Providing a compendium of important legal sources and broad-form policy analysis, they show how laws pertaining to Holy Places have been implemented and engaged. The book weaves aspects of history, politics and religion that have played a role in creation and identification of the law. It also offers solutions for solving some of the central challenges related to the creation, control and use of Holy Places in Jerusalem.

Choreographies of Shared Sacred Sites Elazar Barkan, Karen Barkey, 2014-11-11 This anthology explores the dynamics of shared religious sites in Turkey, the Balkans, Palestine, Israel, Cyprus and Algeria, indicating where local and national stakeholders maneuver between competition and cooperation coexistence and conflict Contributors probe the notion of coexistence and the logic that underlies centuries of sharing exploring when and why sharing gets interrupted or not by conflict and the policy consequences These essays map the choreographies of shared sacred spaces within the framework of state society relations juxtaposing a site s political and religious features and exploring whether sharing or contestation is primarily religious or politically motivated Although religion and politics are intertwined phenomena the contributors to this volume understand the category of religion and the political as devices meant to distinguish between the theological and confessional aspects of religion and the political goals of groups Their comparative approach better represents the transition in some cases of sites into places of hatred and violence while in other instances they remain noncontroversial The essays clearly delineate the religious and political factors that contribute to the context and causality of conflict at these sites and draw on history and anthropology to shed light on the often rapid switch from relative tolerance to distress to peace and calm

The Struggle for Jerusalem's Holy Places Wendy Pullan, Maximilian Sternberg, Lefkos Kyriacou, Craig Larkin, Michael Dumper, 2013-11-20 The Struggle for Jerusalem s Holy Places investigates the role of architecture and urban identity in relation to the political economy of the city and its wider state context seen through the lens of the holy places Reflecting the broad disciplinary backgrounds of the authors this book provides perspectives from architecture urbanism and politics and provides in depth investigations of historical ethnographic and policy related case studies The research is substantiated by fieldwork carried out in Jerusalem over the past ten years as part of the ESRC Large Grants project Conflict in Cities By analysing new dynamics of radicalisation through land seizure the politicisation of parklands and tourism the strategic manipulation of archaeological and historical narratives and material culture and through examination of general appropriation of Jerusalem s varied rituals memories and symbolism for factional uses the book reveals how possibilities of co existence are seriously threatened in Jerusalem Shedding new light on the key role played by everyday urban life and its spatial settings for any future political agreements about the city and its religious sites this book is a useful reference work for students and scholars of Middle East Studies Architecture Religion and Urban Studies

Contested Sites in Jerusalem Tom Najem, Michael Molloy, Michael Bell, John Bell, 2017-11-10 Contested Sites in Jerusalem is the third and final volume in a series of books which collectively present in detail the work of the Jerusalem Old City Initiative or JOCI a major Canadian led Track Two diplomatic effort undertaken between 2003 and 2014 The aim of the Initiative was to find sustainable governance solutions for the Old City of Jerusalem arguably the most sensitive and intractable of the final status issues dividing Palestinians and Israelis This book examines the complex and often contentious issues that arise from the overlapping claims to the Temple Mount Haram al Sharif the role of UNESCO and the major implications of the JOCI Special Regime for such issues as archaeology property and the economy Part I is dedicated to holy sites ground zero of the Israeli Palestinian conflict a point reinforced by the autumn 2014 disturbances which threatened to spiral out of control and engulf Palestinians and Israelis in yet another wave of violence Parts II IV of the volume contain studies on archaeology property and economics that were written after the completion of the Special Regime model specifically to address in depth how a Special Regime would deal with each of these three important areas Contested Sites in Jerusalem offers an insightful explanation of the enormous challenges facing any attempt to find sustainable governance and security arrangements for the Old City in the context of a peace agreement between the Israelis and the Palestinians It will therefore be of immense value to the policy making community as well as anyone in academia with a focus on Middle East politics the Israeli Palestinian conflict and the Middle East peace process Negotiating Rites Ute Husken, Frank

Neubert, 2012 Ritual has been long viewed as an undisputed and indisputable part of especially religious tradition performed over and over in the same ways stable in form meaningless preconceived and with the aim of creating harmony and enabling a tradition's survival The authors represented in this collection argue however that this view can be seriously challenged and that ritual's embeddedness in negotiation processes is one of its central features State Succession in Cultural Property

Andrzej Jakubowski, 2015 Through a historical analysis of state dissolution and succession and its impact on cultural heritage from 1815 to present day this book identifies guiding principles to facilitate the conclusion of agreements on the status of cultural property following the succession of states Holy Places in the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict Marshall J.

Breger, Yitzhak Reiter, Leonard Hammer, 2009-12-16 This book addresses the major generators of conflict and toleration at shared holy places in Palestine and Israel Examining the religious political and legal issues the authors show how the holy sites have been a focus of both conflict and cooperation between different communities Bringing together the views of a diverse group of experts on the region Holy Places in the Israeli Palestinian Conflict provides a new and multifaceted approach to holy places giving an in depth analysis of relevant issues Themes covered include legal regulation of holy places nationalization and reproduction of holy space sharing and contesting holy places identity politics and popular legends of holy sites Chapters cover in detail how recognition and authorization of a new site come about the influence of religious belief versus political ideology on the designation of holy places the centrality of such areas to the surrounding political developments and how historical background and culture affect the perception of a holy site and relations between conflicting groups This new approach to the study of holy places and the Israeli Palestinian conflict has great significance for a variety of disciplines and will be of great interest in the fields of law politics religious studies anthropology and sociology

Understanding the Roots of Intractability in Hindu-Muslim Conflicts in India Chirashree Mukherjee, 2025-07-17 Understanding the Roots of Intractability in Hindu Muslim Conflicts in India examines why some political conflicts especially those involving religion prove difficult to resolve utilizing the case study of religious conflicts between the Hindus and the Muslims in India Traditional conflict resolution techniques such as negotiation and mediation often fail to manage or resolve such conflicts and the existing literature often overlooks the nuances within religious conflicts This book deepens understanding of the roots of intractable conflicts analyzing five decades of conflicts between Hinduism and Islam in India paving the way for more successful peacebuilding and conflict management The author disaggregates religious conflicts into four types Conflicts over Sacred Sites Dietary Restrictions Religious Festivities and Other Using the Varshney Wilkinson Dataset on Hindu Muslim Violence in India 1950 1995 and Mitra and Ray s 2014 extension of the same dataset 1996 2000 this book argues that compared to the latter three types of conflicts and nonreligious conflicts any conflict involving sacred sites results in greater intensity and duration and hence will be the most intractable It further demonstrates the varied effects of each conflict type on conflict intractability This book will appeal to scholars and students of political science religious studies and conflict and security studies
