Protectionism And The European Community:

Trade Protection in the European Community Ludger Schuknecht, 2017-10-10 This book first published in 1992 provides an in depth analysis of the EC policy making processes relating to trade protection It argues that the decision making process is biased towards national policy makers leading to the political determination of the EC's administered protection with the outcome being that protection is geared towards domestic producer interests seeking relief from import competition This study offers a unique perspective because it locates the analysis of EC trade protection within the wider framework of EC decision making processes

EU Coordination in International Institutions Peter Debaere, 2015-08-11 This book examines the European Union EU coordination of the G7 G8 and G20 Gx The author comprehensively maps out the different coordination processes for each Gx forum and assesses the procedures used the actors involved as well as the evolution of the Gx forum over time

The European Union between Free Trade and Protectionism Anes Ridha, 2022-01-18 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2018 in the subject Economics International Economic Relations grade 1.3 University of Duisburg Essen Social Economics language English abstract This thesis deals with the European Union and its tension between free trade on the one hand and protectionism on the other A closer look at the EU reveals an inconsistency in its policies Thus in its domestic policy the EU represents a strongly free trade oriented attitude by standing for a single market without any restrictions Externally however the EU tends to take a protectionist stance in some sectors such as agricultural policy In order to be able to deal with this topic more exactly all bases must be understood as for example terms and theories For this purpose the concept of free trade and protectionism will be introduced in detail Then in chapter two the term economic justification of free trade is defined in more detail

EU International Relations Law Panos Koutrakos, 2015-04-30 This new edition provides a definitive comprehensive and systematic analysis of the law governing the EU's action in the world Updated to take into account the Lisbon Treaty and recent case law the book covers all constitutional aspects of the EU's international action and the procedures for treaty making It analyses the relationship between the EU and its Members with emphasis on mixed agreements and the status of international law in the EU legal order It explores the links between the EU and international organisations such as the WTO and examines the EU's external economic and political relations and its various links with third countries including its neighbours It analyses amongst others the Common Commercial Policy sanctions the Common Foreign and Security Policy and the Common Security and Defence Policy This new edition is the most up to date work of its kind examining both the law and practice in a wide range of external policies placing the law in its political and economic context and exploring the links between the EU's external and internal actions

Lobbying the European Union David Coen, Jeremy Richardson, 2009-06-04 It is universally accepted that there has been a huge growth in EU lobbying over the past few decades There is now a dense EU interest group system This entirely new volume inspired by Mazey Richardson's 1993 book Lobbying in the European Community seeks to understand the role of interest groups in the policy process from agenda setting to implementation Specifically the book is interested in observing how interest groups organise to influence the EU institutions and how they select different coalitions along the policy process and in different policy domains In looking at 20 years of change the book captures processes of institutional and actor learning professionalisation of lobbying and the possible emergence of a distinct EU public policy style More specifically from the actors perspective the editors are interested in assessing how the rise of direct lobbying and the emergence of fluid issue based coalitions has changed the logic of collective action and what is the potential impact of venue shopping on reputation and influence From an institutional perspective the contributors explore resource and legitimacy demands and the practical impact of consultation processes on the emergence of a distinct EU lobbying relationship It will be essential reading for academics and practitioners alike

Britain within the European Community A. M. El-Agraa, 1983-08-01

The European Community and the Developing Countries Enzo R. Grilli, 1993 The European Community has long been the largest trading bloc in the world It is also on the way to becoming the world s largest integrated economic zone Its trade aid and development cooperation policies are therefore of great importance to developing countries At the same time the developing countries have continued to be of interest to the Community both as outlets for its exports and capital investments and as sources of raw materials This 1993 book analyses and evaluates European Community trade aid and industrial policies towards developing countries their origin main features logic evolution and effectiveness in reaching the goals assigned to them The author sums up the state of Europe s development policies by describing them as regional in scope colonial in geographical emphasis discriminatory in their effects and lacking in overall cogency This incisive re evaluation illustrates the different strategies the EC countries might pursue in their relations with the outside world as they progress towards fuller economic integration

The European Union's Geopolitics Mathias Jopp, Johannes Pollak, 2025-02-07 The book deals with the urgent need for the EU to position itself globally in the wake of Brexit a rapidly worsening climate crisis the COVID 19 pandemic an aggressive Russia and an ever more assertive China After 60 years of intensive navel gazing that focused on institutional design more than world politics the EU is now forced to defend its liberal democratic values which have come under attack from inside and outside the European integration project Moreover Realpolitik is back on the agenda Europe s content negligence of defense matters in the past few decades has been revealed by Russia s war of aggression against Ukraine

Company Law and Economic Protectionism Ulf Bernitz, Wolf-Georg Ringe, 2010-12-23 A collection of essays examining the conflict between EU law and company law covering a broad range of topics including takeovers mergers and restructuring sovereign wealth funds and proportionality of ownership and control
