Proud Be Tidwell Achieving Failing:

Proud to Be a Tidwell Carolyn Hansen Tidwell, 2015-12-03 My earlier book called Achieving Failing showcased my life through the years until my children became adults This book starts with their adult life and continuing through the life and life choices of their children and grandchildren ACHIEVING/FAILING CAROLYN TIDWELL, 2004-06-21 Achieving Failing walks the reader through a very interesting life All the way from cow herder to manager of a large law firm data processing center The children of the author were normal and did their share of messing up but never lost sight of right and wrong and or their work ethic The book causes laughter often but also teaches moralistic values Look for the incident dealing with data processing cards strewn over a two mile area after leaving them on top of the author's car and driving off Operation Rising Sun David W. Jourdan, James P. Delgado, 2020-06-01 In 1944 Allied codebreakers learned the Imperial Japanese Navy had dispatched the cargo submarine I 52 to occupied France with tons of military supplies and payment in gold for German assistance I 52 undertook the mission as part of the Yanagi missions a military program meant to alleviate Japan's desperate need for military material and technical knowledge After tracking I 52 from Asia to the Atlantic the Allies destroyed the vessel in a battle that ended the Yanagi missions and left I 52 an unlikely treasure ship on the seafloor David W Jourdan adds to the history of I 52 with a spellbinding account of his efforts to find the sunken submarine One of the first joint American Russian research expeditions the search for the wreck combined a team effort exhaustive detective work and a dramatic battle with the sea The effort paid off when the group found I 52's nearly intact hull three miles down The expedition also earned an unexpected historical dividend when it uncovered one of a kind recordings of American Avenger torpedo bomber attacks on an enemy submarine Part war tale and part seagoing adventure Operation Rising Sun tells the story of the two very different missions to find submarine I 52 My Dear Boy Carrie Hughes, 2013-11-15 My Dear Boy brings a largely unexplored dimension of Langston Hughes to light Carmaletha Williams and John Edgar Tidwell explain that scholars have neglected the vital role that correspondence between Carrie Hughes and her son Langston Harlem Renaissance icon renowned poet playwright fiction writer autobiographer and essayist played in his work The more than 120 heretofore unexamined letters presented here are a veritable treasure trove of insights into the relationship between mother Carrie and her renowned son Langston Until now a scholarly consensus had begun to emerge accepting the idea of their lives and his art as simple and transparent But as Williams and Tidwell argue this correspondence is precisely where scholars should start in order to understand the underlying complexity in Carrie and Langston's relationship By employing Family Systems Theory for the first time in Hughes scholarship they demonstrate that it is an essential heuristic for analyzing the Hughes family and its influence on his work The study takes the critical truism about Langston's reticence to reveal his inner self and shows how his responses to Carrie were usually not in return letters but instead in his created art Thus My Dear Boy reveals the difficult negotiations between family and art that Langston engaged in as he attempted to sustain an elusive but enduring artistic reputation Sustainable Energy Transformations, Power and Politics Sharlissa Moore, 2018-09-03 This book analyses energy transitions and the opportunities and challenges for building sustainable energy systems to improve human capabilities while protecting the environment Sufficient and secure energy supply is critical to human thriving and socioeconomic development Yet energy systems are also implicated in the most pressing socio environmental challenges of our time climate change air pollution and water and land use This book examines what is arguably the most ambitious vision for a renewable energy based system worldwide This vision often called Desertec is for a regional electricity system supplying North Africa Europe and the Middle East with sustainable and affordable power The behemoth plan would entail building dozens of large scale solar and wind power plants mostly in North Africa interconnecting the fragmented transmission infrastructure of 38 Mediterranean countries and linking North Africa to the European Union EU through undersea transmission cables Within the Mediterranean the book focuses on Morocco which is one of the most advanced developing countries in renewable energy scale up to understand its motivations for building renewable energy and the effects on sustainable development The book therefore takes a unique multi scalar approach to understanding the social and political aspects of energy transitions weaving together the views of villagers living near Morocco s first solar energy zone with the perspectives of national decision makers in Morocco with the views of European policymakers and major transnational energy companies in the Mediterranean region This book will be of great interest to students scholars and policymakers interested in energy transitions sustainable and renewable energy Mediterranean politics sustainable development and environment and sustainability more generally Proud to Be a Tidwell: Still Achieving and Failing Carolyn Hansen Tidwell, 2015-12-03 My earlier book called Achieving Failing showcased my life through the years until my children became adults This book starts with their adult life and continuing through the life and life choices of their children and grandchildren Black Moods Frank Marshall Davis, 2024-03-18 Black Moods collects for the first time all of Frank Marshall Davis s extant published poems as well as his previously unpublished work From sharp edged sketches of Southside Chicago s urban landscape to the prismatic world that lay beneath Hawaii s placid surface Davis s muscular poems blend social cultural and political concerns always shaped by his promise to try to be as direct as good blues John Edgar Tidwell s introduction examines both Davis s poetry and his politics presenting a subtle portrait of a complex writer devoted to exposing discriminatory practices and reaffirming the humanity of the common people Manage, 1955 Impacts of Incarceration on the African American Family Othello Harris, R. Robin Miller, The criminal justice system has driven a wedge between black men and their children African American men are involved in the criminal justice system whether through incarceration probation or parole at near epidemic levels At the same time the criminal justice system has made little or no institutional efforts to maintain or support continuing relationships between these men and their families Consequently African American families are harmed by this in countless ways from the psychological physical and material suffering experienced by the men themselves to losses felt by their mates children and extended family members The volume opens with an introduction and brief review by R Robin Miller Sandra Lee Browning and Lisa M Spruance outlining the impacts of incarceration on the African American family Brad Tripp explores changes in family relationships and the identity of incarcerated African American fathers Mary Balthazar and Lula King discuss the loss of the protective effect of marital and nonmarital relationships and its impact on incarcerated African American men and the implications for African American men and those who work with them in the helping professions Theresa Clark explores the relationship between visits by family and friends and the nature of inmate behavior In a research note Olga Grinstead Bonnie Faigeles Carrie Bancroft and Barry Zack investigate the actual costs families incur to maintain contact with family members be it emotional social or financial Patricia E O Connor uses data from sociolinguistic interviews of male inmates from a maximum security prison to study how some of these men manage to continue to fulfill the fatherhood role long distance In a concluding chapter Sandra Lee Browning Robin Miller and Lisa Spruance focus on actions of the criminal justice system that undermine the black family on reasons that black male inmate fathers are studied so rarely and discuss the role restorative justice may play This insightful volume fills a void in the literature on the role of African American men in the functioning of families It will be of interest to students of African American studies social workers and policy makers
