Archetypal Dimensions of the Psyche Marie-Louise von Franz, 1999-02-16 The chief disciple of C. G. Jung, analyst Marie-Louise von Franz, uses her vast knowledge of the world of myths, fairy tales, visions, and dreams to examine expressions of the universal symbol of the Anthropos or Cosmic Man, a universal archetype that embodies humanity's personal as well as collective identity. She shows that the meaning of life, the realization of our fullest human potential, which Jung called individuation, can only be found through a greater differentiation of consciousness by virtue of archetypes and that ultimately our future depends on relationships, whether between the sexes or among nations, races, religions, and political factions.

Four Novels in Jung's 1925 Seminar Matthew A. Fike, 2020-01-27 C. G. Jung believed that popular fiction often conveyed unvarnished psychological truths. In this volume, Matthew A. Fike skillfully analyzes the novels under consideration in Jung's 1925 seminar on analytical psychology, corrects Jung's ill-informed perspectives, and sheds light on a neglected area of Jungian literary studies. Jung originally planned to discuss several novels about the anima: Henry Rider Haggard's She, Pierre Benoit's L'Atlantide, and Gustav Meyrink's The Green Face. At the request of his participants, he dropped Meyrink and included a text about the animus, Marie Hay's The Evil Vineyard. Fike demonstrates that Haggard's She and Benoit's L'Atlantide portray anima possession, the visionary and psychological modes, and traditional versus Jungian approaches to history. Meyrink's smorgasbord of Jungian theory and religion makes The Green Face a fictional counterpart to The Red Book, and both Meyrink and Hay depict states of higher consciousness that transcend the archetypes. The distinction between archetypal and spiritual possession demonstrates that The Evil Vineyard is a ghost story, and the study concludes with Hay's dozens of allusions, which provide important metacommentary. Four Novels in Jung's 1925 Seminar, the first comprehensive study of all four texts, complements seminal works by Cornelia Brunner and Barbara Hannah, critiques the seminar discussion recorded in William McGuire's edition of Analytical Psychology: Notes of the Seminar Given in 1925 by C. G. Jung, and incorporates Jung's own comments on the four novels in The Collected Works. Thus, it provides an essential addition to Jungian literary studies and will appeal both to students and practitioners of Jungian analytical psychology and to scholars of British, French, and German literature.
