Our Many Selves Sri Aurobindo, Mother, 2003 Many of us face the difficulty of trying to change something in our nature only to find that it is either difficult or virtually impossible The key to solving this problem actually lies in a deeper understanding of the true nature of our psychological being We are actually composed of various different parts or planes of action that combine together interact with one another and impinge upon one another This understanding allows us to differentiate between a mental idea a force of will an emotional movement a vital energy or a physical structure and thereby more clearly understand the results of our psychological efforts and growth activities
