Revisioning Philosophy James A. Ogilvy, 1992-01-01 Contributors to this volume include Robert Bellah Raimundo Panikkar Susan Griffin Robert C Solomon Hubert L Dreyfus and Stuart D Dreyfus Francisco J Varela Steven Rockefeller Bruce Wilshire Huston Smith Joanne Ciulla Michael Murphy Tyrone Cashman Naomi Scheman Don Hanlon Johnson Robert A McDermott Roger Walsh and David Appelbaum Philosophy, Revision, Critique David Wittenberg, 2002-03-01

Philosophers have almost always relegated the topic of revision to the sidelines of their discipline if they have thought about it at all This book contends that acts of revision are central and indispensable to the project of philosophizing and that philosophy should be construed essentially as a practice of rereading and rewriting The book focuses chiefly on Heidegger's highly influential interpretation of Nietzsche conducted in lectures during the 1930s and 1940s and published in 1961 The author closely analyzes the rhetorical means by which Heidegger repositions Nietzsche's thinking within a broad history of metaphysics even as Heidegger positions his own reinterpretation as that history's more proper reading The author argues that Heidegger's revisionist project recasts the philosophical text as paralipsis a special kind of ironic statement that when properly received by the philosophical rereader expresses what the text did not and could not say The study of such paraliptical revisionism within the philosophical canon offers a new way of understanding the basic historicity of the philosophical text a text that is critically indistinguishable from its own future history of interpretations Philosophy itself is revision a deeply historicist rereading practice a continuous reappropriation of its own improper textual past In addition to being the first book length published study of Heidegger's interpretation of Nietzsche the book also examines the work of Hans Robert Jauss Harold Bloom and other critics of revision In particular Ralph Waldo Emerson's early essays on history read both with and against Heidegger's analysis of metaphysics demonstrate why the historical intervention achieved by revisionist reading is not only a formal and thematic alteration of the past but also a rhetorical coercion of future interpretive tendencies No philosophical reader is simply a user or victim of revisionist methods in rereading philosophical pasts the reader is the very mechanism by which such interpretive tendencies are first formed into problems or thoughts within the philosophical canon Belief Revision meets Philosophy of Science Erik J Olsson, Sebastian Enqvist, 2010-10-27

Belief revision theory and philosophy of science both aspire to shed light on the dynamics of knowledge on how our view of the world changes typically in the light of new evidence Yet these two areas of research have long seemed strangely detached from each other as witnessed by the small number of cross references and researchers working in both domains One may speculate as to what has brought about this surprising and perhaps unfortunate state of affairs One factor may be that while belief revision theory has traditionally been pursued in a bottom up manner focusing on the endeavors of single inquirers philosophers of science inspired by logical empiricism have tended to be more interested in science as a multi agent or agent independent phenomenon My Revision Notes: AQA A-level Philosophy Paper 1 Epistemology and Moral
