D. Emmerson, 2017-06-20 Decapods are a culmination of nearly 600 million years of Crustacean evolution during which time they have radiated into a variety of superfamilies, families, genera and species which occupy a variety of niches from fresh mountain streams to the abysses of the oceans. This book will fill a gap in the current literature on southern African decapods. Since Barnard published his Descriptive Catalogue of South African Decapod Crustacea in 1950, there have been numerous additions and name changes. This publication updates the taxonomy and includes ecological and fisheries information. In addition, Kensley's 1981 distributional checklist for the region has been updated and includes large numbers of new species and records for the region, bringing the total number of decapods to over 1000 species. Although not exhaustive, 262 species are featured, some of which are beautiful, some have commercial or artisanal value both for consumption and the aquarium, and some have important ecological functions while others are rare or interesting. For each species, there is a photograph, synonymies, common names, a description, ecological information, and name derivation/etymology. All the decapod families found in South Africa are described, some new, along with chapters on decapod research history in southern Africa, commercial and artisanal food value of decapods, biodiversity, and future research direction. The book is arranged systematically as taxonomy is based on phylogeny, starting with the earliest forms and progressing to the most derived and advanced forms, and will serve to stimulate interest and future research into southern Africa's rich decapod biodiversity, especially at a time when biodiversity itself is threatened by global warming, coral bleaching, and habitat loss. It will appeal to people interested in Decapoda, including academics, scholars, students, fishermen, aquarists, aquaculturists, recreational snorkel and SCUBA divers, as well as those interested in conservation, biodiversity management, and governance. The Global Guide to Animal Protection

Andrew Linzey, 2013-06-01 Raising awareness of human indifference and cruelty toward animals. The Global Guide to Animal Protection includes more than 180 introductory articles that survey the extent of worldwide human exploitation of animals from a variety of perspectives. In addition to entries on often disturbing examples of human cruelty toward animals, the book provides inspiring accounts of attempts by courageous individuals, including Jane Goodall, Shirley McGreal, Birute Mary Galdikas, Richard D. Ryder, and Roger Fouts, to challenge and change exploitative practices. As concern for animals and their welfare grows, this volume will be an indispensable aid to general readers, activists, scholars, and students interested in developing a keener awareness of cruelty to animals and considering avenues for reform. Also included is a special foreword by Archbishop Desmond Tutu, urging readers to seek justice and protection for all creatures, humans and animals alike. The Methuen Drama Guide to Contemporary South African Theatre

Martin Middeke, Peter Paul Schnierer, 2015-11-19 South Africa has a uniquely rich and diverse theatre tradition which has responded energetically to the country's remarkable transition, helping to define the challenges and contradictions of this young democracy. This volume considers the variety of theatre forms and the work of the major playwrights and theatre makers producing work in democratic South Africa. It offers an overview of theatre pioneers and theatre forms in Part One, before concentrating on the work of individual playwrights in Part Two Through its wide ranging survey of indigenous drama written predominantly in the English language and the analysis of more than 100 plays a detailed account is provided of post apartheid South African theatre and its engagement with the country s recent history Part One offers six overview chapters on South African theatre pioneers and theatre forms These include consideration of the work of artists such as Barney Simon Mbongeni Ngema Phyllis Klotz the collaborations of William Kentridge and the Handspring Puppet Company the work of Magnet Theatre and of physical and popular community theatre forms Part Two features chapters on twelve major playwrights including Athol Fugard Reza de Wet Lara Foot Zakes Mda Ya l Farber Mpumelelo Paul Grootboom Mike van Graan and Brett Bailey It includes a survey of emerging playwrights and significant plays and the book closes with an interview with Aubrey Sekhabi the Artistic Director of the South African State Theatre in Pretoria Written by a team of over twenty leading international scholars The Methuen Drama Guide to Contemporary South African Theatre is a unique resource that will be invaluable to students and scholars from a range of different disciplines as well as theatre practitioners
