MICHAEL D. PATRICK
EVELYN GOODRICH TRICKEL

WANTED HOMES for CHILDREN

A company of homeless children from the East will arrive at
TROY, MO., ON FRIDAY, FEB. 25th, 1910

These children are of various ages and of both sexes, having been thrown friendless upon the world. They come under the auspices of the Children's Aid Society of New York. They are well disciplined, having come from the various orphanages. The citizens of this community are asked to assist the agent in finding good homes for them. Parents

Orphan Trains To Missouri Missouri Heritage Readers:

This Place of Promise Gary R. Kremer, 2021-11-30 Conceived of as a way to commemorate Missouri's bicentennial of statehood this unique work presents the perspective of Gary Kremer one of the Show Me State's foremost historians as he ponders why history played out as it did over the course of the two centuries since Missouri's admittance to the Union In the writing of what is much more than a survey history Kremer himself a fifth generation Missourian infuses the narrative with his vast knowledge and personal experiences even as he considers what being a Missourian has meant across the many years and to this day to all of the state's people and how the forces of history time place race gender religion and class shaped people and determined their opportunities and choices in turn creating collective experiences that draw upon the past in an attempt to make sense of the present and plan for the future Key elements of the book include the centrality of race to the Missouri experience from the time Missourians began to seek statehood in 1817 all the way up to the Black Lives Matter movement of the 21st century as well as ongoing tensions created by the urban rural divide and struggle to define the proper role of government in society Orphan Trains to Missouri Michael Patrick, Evelyn Trickel, 1997 Discusses the use of orphan trains to place orphaned or abandoned children in homes in nineteenth century Missouri Missouri Historical Review Francis Asbury Sampson, 2008-04 Annals of Iowa, 2009 University of Missouri Press Melvin D. George, 2008 Celebrates the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the University of Missouri Press in 1958 by William Peden Explores the importance of university presses to the dissemination of scholarship and looks to the future of book publishing Includes lists of books in print and out of print as of 2008 Provided by publisher Library Journal, 1997 Encyclopedia of Juvenile Violence Laura L. Finley, 2006-12-30 From concerns about juveniles incorrigibility at the turn of the century to school violence in the 1990s adults have attempted to understand control and prevent juvenile violence Yet juvenile violence takes many forms including both violence by juveniles and violence against juveniles and has various causes and consequences Since juvenile violence cannot be understood without examining the social context of a given time this comprehensive encyclopedia provides a historical overview of many significant time periods and offers entries about many types of juvenile violence It covers competing theories of youth violence issues such as gender race and educational status and the criminal justice system's methods for dealing with both victims and offenders over time Additionally several topics that receive little attention in traditional volumes about juvenile violence such as hazing systemic violence in schools peaceable schools are covered in these pages Each entry utilizes current sources making the book as up to date as possible The front and back matter offer important information including a chronological list of significant events related to juvenile violence and book and Web resources Authors represent many different fields including Sociology Psychology Education History Social Work Political Science Policing and English This offers readers a diversity of perspectives and information from a variety of sources Confronting a difficult and often misunderstood subject this encyclopedia is essential to a better understanding of juvenile
