course of one dew dipped year A memoir of the author s life as well as of the birds migrations the book draws on memories of forty years of observing birds as Dee explores the ideas and feelings that birds awaken in their flying breeding and dying A Year on the Wing is also a significant chronicle of Dee s rich reading of a gorgeous literary tradition about birds from Aristotle to Thomas Hardy Dante to Pound Wordsworth to Ted Hughes as well as naturalists writings that train a scientific eye on these elusive creatures With a poet s marvelous commingling of nature and language Dee finds meaning and a fascinating beauty in the quiver of a redstart s tail elegizes the thrilling skydiving stoop of the once endangered now resurgent peregrine falcon and reflects on the nocturnal restlessness of migrant woodcocks that is suggestive of how nature encodes us all A Year on the Wing brings us as close as possible to birds as we seek to understand the unique connection between us and them as well as our separation from them and by extension our estrangement from all of nature Watching birds instills a renewed sense of wonder getting us airborne and expanding our horizons This vicarious liftoff does us good in a way hard to define but incontestably felt It also makes us ever aware of our place on the ground Dee homes in on those moments when the gap narrows between humans and birds when birds freedom gives us our own making our lives more vibrant and alive The first book from an exciting new literary voice this beautifully written memoir celebrates birds and the inspiration they provide through their twice yearly winged migrations
