Making the Grade Martin V. Covington, 1992-04-24 Achievement behaviour in schools can best be understood in terms of attempts by students to maintain a positive self image For many students trying hard is frightening because a combination of effort and failure implies low ability which is often equated with worthlessness Thus many students described as unmotivated are in actuality highly motivated not to learn but to avoid failure Students have a variety of techniques for avoiding failure ranging from cheating to setting low goals which are easily achieved In Making the Grade Martin Covington extracts powerful educational implications from self worth theory and other contemporary views of motivation that will be useful for everyone concerned with the educational dilemmas we face He provides a comprehensive insightful review of research and theory both contemporary and historical on the topic of achievement motivation and arranges this knowledge in ways that lead to imminently practical recommendations for restructuring schools

Tools of American Mathematics Teaching, 1800-2000 Peggy Aldrich Kidwell, Amy Ackerberg-Hastings, David Lindsay Roberts, 2008-08-11 From the blackboard to the graphing calculator the tools developed to teach mathematics in America have a rich history shaped by educational reform technological innovation and spirited entrepreneurship In Tools of American Mathematics Teaching 1800 2000 Peggy Aldrich Kidwell Amy Ackerberg Hastings and David Lindsay Roberts present the first systematic historical study of the objects used in the American mathematics classroom They discuss broad tools of presentation and pedagogy not only blackboards and textbooks but early twentieth century standardized tests teaching machines and the overhead projector tools for calculation and tools for representation and measurement Engaging and accessible this volume tells the stories of how specific objects such as protractors geometric models slide rules electronic calculators and computers came to be used in classrooms and how some disappeared

The Algebra Conspiracy Michael Wiener, 2000-09 The Algebra Conspiracy is an irreverent radical politically incorrect passionate challenge to the increasingly popular program of the educational establishment which requires every student to take two to four years of college preparatory mathematics to earn a high school diploma These well meaning but misguided people are placing every secondary school student into Algebra Geometry and Trigonometry classes that they may not want that they may not need to fulfill requirements for future employment or that they may not be academically equipped to handle This means for instance that a youngster who has trouble adding common fractions computing with percents or even making change on a ten dollar purchase will nevertheless be required to pass Algebra and Geometry In many school districts this is already creating an academic nightmare as more and more math teachers are faced with the Hobson s choice of either failing many of their students who simply cannot handle Algebra and Geometry or handing out numerous gift D s or severely watering down the college prep mathematics curriculum so more students can pass the classes The author takes the controversial view that the Age of Technology notwithstanding a large percentage of today s secondary school youngsters could if allowed live their entire adult working lives very comfortably without ever being forced to set foot in Algebra and Geometry classrooms There are many other classes that these youngsters should be taking such as cultural or practical arts electives instead of wasting their time in college prep math classes
