(Catez), 2014-06-09 Blessed Elizabeth of the Trinity Elizabeth Catez is a mystic of our times who entered Carmel in 1901 at the age of twenty one and died there five years later Her biblical spirituality based on the epistles of her dear Saint Paul and the mystery of the divine indwelling has inspired countless Christians This second of three volumes of her Complete Works contains all of Elizabeth's surviving letters from Carmel along with 8 photos In simple and tender language writing to friends and family Elizabeth returns again and again to the great themes of her spirituality the indwelling Trinity silence and solitude living by love becoming a praise of glory laudem gloriae by sharing in the dying and rising of Jesus Christ Here too we find many of her best known sayings e.g. I have found my heaven on earth for heaven is God and God is in my soul In his introductions and careful notes Father Conrad De Meester O.C.D. explains the background of each of Elizabeth's letters from Carmel most of which have never before appeared in English Anne Englund Nash continues the style set in the first volume of the Complete Works presenting a translation that reflects both the literary nuances and spirit of the original French texts

Art, Identity and Devotion in Fourteenth-century England Kathryn Ann Smith, 2003-01-01 Examines the De Lisle hours of Margaret de Beauchamp the De Bois hours Dubois hours of Hawisia de Bois and the Neville of Hornby hours of Isabel de Byron Earthing the Cosmic Christ of Ephesians--The Universe, Trinity, and Zhiyi's Threefold Truth, Volume 4 John P. Keenan, 2024-02-26 In a Tiantai theology conventional truth is conventionally arisen which means that such truth is never set once and for all but is to be cherished and rethought in new circumstances whether interreligious or scientific but always in critical consonance with its ancient embodiments Contexts shift frameworks but life in Christ is translatable across cultures

Christian faith and theology discourage the assumption that the point of it can be clearly pinned down God's appearance to Elijah out of the whirlwind is an eternal reminder of the paltriness of all human perspectives Symbolic worlds of faith and wisdom are not themselves finished products Because it has a past and a future the cosmos itself is unfinished Christian creeds ought not be defended as last word ideological positions and bastions against relativity but instead recognized in their cultural contexts and affirmed as grammars of communal and personal assent Reframing Biblical Theology Daniel C. Fredericks, 2025-08-26 Biblical theology is adequate only if wholly contextualized within the eternal natures of God creation and history A more thorough awareness of God's eternal design within creation and its history and a fuller perspective on the Messiah's commission avoids significant discontinuities such as universal and redemptive histories the gospels of Jesus and his apostles cross and kingdom of God centers heaven and a new earth and the role of sanctification in the Old and New Testaments This study suggests that God's eternal design for creation and its history subsumes a limited biblical theology that focuses on the solution to the sin problem at the expense of what has always been the eternal practical and productive objective of that solution and its current implications The church can focus on an urgent need for the rescue at the expense of the equally urgent and eternal purpose for that rescue A more comprehensive practical and productive theology of endless creation and its history contextualizes salvation and its eschatological focus by enveloping them as temporary components within God's eternal design Divine Comedy. The Inferno Dante Alighieri, 1851 Knowledge, Love, and Ecstasy in the Theology of Thomas Gallus Boyd Taylor Coolman, 2017-01-26 Knowledge Love and Ecstasy in the Theology of Thomas Gallus provides the first full study of Thomas Gallus d 1246 in English and represents a significant advance in his distinctive theology Boyd Taylor Coolman argues that Gallus distinguishes but never separates and intimately relates two internal modalities in human consciousness the intellective and the affective both of which are forms of cognition Coolman shows that Gallus conceives these two cognitive modalities as co existing in an interdependent manner and that this reciprocity is given a particular character by Gallus anthropological appropriation of the Dionysian concept of hierarchy Because Gallus conceives of the soul as hierarchized on the model of the angelic hierarchy the intellect affect relationship is fundamentally governed by the dynamism of a Dionysian hierarchy which has two simultaneous trajectories ascending and descending Two crucial features are noteworthy in this regard in ascending firstly the lower is subsumed by the higher in descending secondly the higher communicates with the lower according to the nature of the lower When Gallus posits a higher affective cognitio above an intellective cognitio at the highest point in the ascent accordingly this higher affective form both builds upon and sublimates the lower intellective form At the same time this affective cognitio descends back down into the soul both enriching its properly intellective capacity and also renewing the ascending movement in love For Gallus then in the hierarchized soul a dynamic mutuality between intellect and affect emerges which he construes as a spiralling motion by which the soul unceasingly stretches beyond itself ecstatically in knowing and loving God Training to be a Primary School
