Cataloguing Culture Hannah Turner,2020-07-15 How does material culture become data Why does this matter and for whom As the cultures of Indigenous peoples in North America were mined for scientific knowledge years of organizing classifying and cataloguing hardened into accepted categories naming conventions and tribal affiliations much of it wrong Cataloguing Culture examines how colonialism operates in museum bureaucracies Using the Smithsonian s National Museum of Natural History as her reference Hannah Turner organizes her study by the technologies framing museum work over two hundred years field records the ledger the card catalogue the punch card and eventually the database She examines how categories were applied to ethnographic material culture and became routine throughout federal collecting institutions As Indigenous communities encounter the documentary traces of imperialism while attempting to reclaim what is theirs this timely work shines a light on access to and return of cultural heritage

Resources in Education ,1998 Scientific and Technical Aerospace Reports ,1991 Editing Early Modern Texts Michael Hunter,2006-10-12 This book provides an approachable exposition of the rationale of textual editing with special reference to texts from between 1550 1800 The volume explains how manuscript and printed texts were produced indicating the implications of this for their editorial treatment and giving practical advice on how texts should be prepared and presented

Imperfectionist Aesthetics in Art and Everyday Life Peter Cheyne,2022-12-30 This book presents interdisciplinary research on the aesthetics of perfection and imperfection Broadening this growing field it connects the aesthetics of imperfection with issues in areas including philosophy music literature urban environment architecture art theory and cultural studies The contributors to this volume argue that imperfection has value in being open and inclusive The aesthetics of imperfection is typified by organic unpolished production and the avoidance of perfect finish instead representing living and natural change and opposing the consumerist concern with the flawless and pristine The chapters are divided into seven thematic sections After the first section on imperfection across the arts and culture the next three parts are on imperfection in the arts of music visual and theatrical arts and literature The second half of this book then moves to categories in everyday life and branches this further into body self and the person and urban environments Together the chapters promote a positive ethos of imperfection that furthers individual and social engagement and supports creativity over mere passivity Imperfectionist Aesthetics in Art and Everyday Life will appeal to a broad range of scholars and advanced students working in philosophical aesthetics literature music urban environment architecture art theory and cultural studies
