

CULTURAL ASSIMILATION

DEFINITION

In sociology, assimilation refers to the process whereby individuals or groups with different ethnic or cultural heritage are absorbed into the dominant culture of that society.

The assimilation process involves taking on the traits and customs of the dominant culture while simultaneously rejecting your traditional culture.

EXAMPLES

- Embracing the language of the prevailing culture as a primary mode of communication.
- Alteration of one's name to a more "Western" equivalent.
- Discarding traditional fashion choices and clothing in preference for the fashion of the dominant culture.
