How to Write a Book Report: Non Fiction Book Reports Brenda Rollins,2014-01-01 This is the chapter slice Non Fiction Book Reports from the full lesson plan How to Write a Book Report. Do your students groan in despair when book reports are assigned? Our workbook provides opportunities for students to use graphic organizers during the prewriting process and offers clear and concise instruction in the drafting and revision phases. The learning objectives contained are based on Bloom's Taxonomy and provide instruction in the correct form and mechanics of all book reports. You can use this material to supplement your present writing program or for independent student work. Also included is a detailed implementation guide, student assessment rubric, word puzzles and comprehension quiz. The six color graphic organizers will assist the introduction of the skill focus and in guiding your students through their successful writing process. All of our content meets the Common Core State Standards and are written to Bloom's Taxonomy.
