documenting family histories and genealogies and gathering stories folktales and recipes Senem Mallman found that as adults many children of immigrants actively seek out family histories and stories in order to connect with their cultural heritage and with their parents and to pass this knowledge on to their own children She argues that seeking out stories enables the second generation to find a place within their family narrative This pursuit of stories leads them toward developing new perspectives about their culture family and life in Australia and new ways of living with their cultural ambivalence
