Our Precious Girl In Our Bed Taboo Club Universe:

Tappin' at the Apollo Cheryl M. Willis, 2016-03-08 In the 1920s and 1930s Edwina Salt Evelyn and Jewel Pepper Welch learned to tap dance on street corners in New York and Philadelphia By the 1940s they were Black show business headliners playing Harlem s Apollo Theater with the likes of Count Basie Fats Waller and Earl Fatha Hines Their exuberant tap style usually performed by men earned them the respect of their male peers and the acclaim of audiences Based on extensive interviews with Salt and Pepper this book chronicles for the first time the lives and careers of two overlooked female performers who succeeded despite the racism sexism and homophobia of the Big Band era Unraveling Taboo: Love's

Unexpected Pathways Dr. Anthony Mathews, 2024-08-16 In a world where sexuality love greed and money take on new meanings and death lurks around every corner a captivating story unfolds Father a sophisticated and wealthy 60 year old man and his 34 year old son both find themselves enamored with a stunning 27 year old single woman Initially she becomes the lover of the father a known adventurer with a penchant for beautiful young women However when she meets his son she falls deeply in love and marries him perhaps driven by financial motives The tycoon her ex lover and now father in law cannot and will not relinquish his love for her He insists on continuing their intimate relationship even resorting to pressure and ultimatums when she objects Despite the husband s suspicions it is the wife herself who reveals the shocking truth she has been regularly sleeping with his father both before and after their marriage A war erupts between the three as life teaches us to smile through the tears Who do you think will be the first to die Or is the human being simply a poor customer of life Life on earth is a journey filled with people we encounter in all seasons Some accompany us while others remain behind Those who stay with us will witness our happiness smiles sadness and ultimately our death In a world that is absurd full of wonders and where death is ever present life is riddled with disappointment We always need that breath of air to outlet our emotions to breathe heavily and calm ourselves down There is no such thing as one hundred percent security in this life there are always unforeseen events Living is an art and dying is an art as well Congo's Dancers Lesley Nicole Braun, 2023-01-24

Dance music plays a central role in the cultural social religious and family lives of the people of the Democratic Republic of the Congo Among the various genres popular in the capital city of Kinshasa Congolese rumba occupies a special place and can be counted as one of the DRC s most well known cultural exports The public image of rumba was historically dominated by male bandleaders singers and musicians However with the introduction of the danseuse professional concert dancer in the late 1970s the role of women as cultural moral and economic actors came into public prominence and helped further raise Congolese rumba s international profile In Congo s Dancers Lesley Nicole Braun uses the prism of the Congolese danseuse to examine the politics of control and the ways in which notions of visibility virtue and socio economic opportunity are interlinked in this urban African context The work of the danseuse highlights the fact that public visibility is necessary to build the social networks required for economic independence even as this visibility invites social opprobrium for women The concert dancer therefore exemplifies many of the challenges that women face in Kinshasa as they navigate the public sphere and she illustrates the gendered differences of local patronage politics that shape public morality As an ethnographer Braun had unusual access to the world she documents having been invited to participate as a concert dancer herself More Tales from Ulithi Atoll William A Lessa, William Armand Lessa, 1980-01-01 The Social World of Old Women Sarah H. Matthews, 1979-05 Women and Recovery Kitty Harris, 2012-05-07 A breakthrough recovery plan for women who struggle with alcoholism based on a groundbreaking new model Tens of millions of women today drink to excess and their numbers are growing Now Dr Kitty Harris an experienced counselor and therapist who is herself a recovering alcoholic with more than thirty years of sobriety presents a new model for recovery that focuses on treating the pain in women's lives that can lead to a vicious cycle of addiction not on the shame that fuels it Combining her personal and professional experience Dr Harris offers tools that can help women who want to recover as well as friends or family members who are seeking help for a loved one Focuses on dealing with the pain associated with alcoholism in women not reinforcing the shame Discusses the different types of female drinking habits including binge drinking and drunkorexia Takes a plain language jargon free approach that is easy to understand and shares the stories of recovering women of all ages and from all walks of life Is written by Dr Kitty Harris Director of The Center for the Study of Addiction and Recovery at Texas Tech University with twenty five years of private clinical experience working with adults and adolescents Gender and Spanish Cinema Steven Marsh, Parvati Nair, 2004-10 This examination of twentieth century Spanish film explores the portrayal of gender and its interaction with national identity ethnicity class politics and history From Girl to Goddess Valerie Estelle Frankel, 2014-01-10 Many are familiar with Joseph Campbell's theory of the hero's journey the idea that every man from Moses to Hercules grows to adulthood while battling his alter ego This book explores the universal heroine's journey as she quests through world myth Numerous stories from cultures as varied as Chile and Vietnam reveal heroines who battle for safety and identity thereby upsetting popular notions of the passive gentle heroine Only after she has defeated her dark side and reintegrated can the heroine become the bestower of wisdom the protecting queen and arch crone Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Golden Days for Boys and Girls, 1891 The Illustrated London News, 1863
