Out Of America A Black Man Confronts Africa:

Out Of America Keith B Richburg, 2009-09-22 Keith B Richburg was an experienced and respected reporter who had paid his dues covering urban neighborhoods in Washington D C and won praise for his coverage of Southeast Asia But nothing prepared him for the personal odyssey that he would embark upon when he was assigned to cover Africa In this powerful book Richburg takes the reader on an extraordinary journey that sweeps from Somalia to Rwanda to Zaire and finally to South Africa He shows how he came to terms with the divide within himself between his African racial heritage and his American cultural identity Are these really my people Am I truly an African American The answer Richburg finds after much soul searching is that no he is not an African but an American first and foremost To those who romanticize Mother Africa as a black Valhalla where blacks can walk with dignity and pride he regrets that this is not the reality He has been there and witnessed the killings the repression the false promises and the horror Thank God my nameless ancestor brought across the ocean in chains and leg irons made it out alive he concludes Thank God I am an American

Pan-African Education John K. Marah, 2017-08-09 This book makes a critical contribution to the study of pan Africanism and the education of African people for continental African citizenship It is a unique endeavor in that it intersects the social history of pan Africanism and the education of African people at a global level and provides reflections from a multidisciplinary perspective on the urgency for continental pan Africanism educational system in order to produce a more renascent African for the twenty first century Arguing that Pan African Education is a mass based educational system that will craft a pan African African personality John Marah calls for integrated African school systems and curriculum changes conducive to larger social integration and institutionalized pan African educational processes The establishments of pan African Teachers Colleges intensive language institutes pan African literature courses the training of African military and police forces the use of music sports media and other extra curricular activities the hidden curriculum etc are viewed as essential aspects in the socialization of a pan African character or personality Pan African Education is an essential read for students and scholars of Pan Africanism African and Africana Studies and Black Studies

Prison and Slavery - A Surprising Comparison John Dewar Gleissner, 2010-11-17 This historically accurate and thoroughly researched book compares the modern American prison system to antebellum slavery The surprising comparison proves that antebellum slavery was not as bad as many believe while modern mass incarceration is an unrealized social and financial disaster of mammoth proportions

Talking about Race in America: Conversations with conservatives, liberals, independents, immigrants and others Seth Elijah, 2022-07-15 THIS work is a meeting of the minds People of different political and ideological beliefs articulate their positions on the question of race in the United States that has bedeviled the nation since its founding Conservatives liberals and independents as well as those who don t have any political affiliation or ideological positions exchange views debate offer suggestions and provide solutions to race problems facing the United States There are those who contend that the United States does not have a race problem It is individuals who have problems and they are the ones who complain about racism blaming society for their own failures in life Their problems have nothing to do with race Then there are those who say the United States has a race problem but it is not a major one as it once was Others contend that racism is one of the biggest and most urgent problems facing the nation Immigrants from all parts of the world also express their views and beliefs from different political and ideological perspectives on a subject that has divided the nation and continues to be one of the most contentious in the history of the country There are immigrants who don't see racism as a major problem in the United States even if they admit it exists There are those who agree with many Americans that racism still exists and it is a major problem Although immigrants they also offer solutions to a problem that from their own experience is a major one and should be addressed to achieve racial equality White nationalists also take part in the discussions on race exchanging views with conservatives liberals independents and immigrants They explain their position and offer solutions to the race question some of which don't differ much from the solutions proposed by some people who would be considered to be an integral part of the mainstream and not on the fringes of the American society There is no consensus on the final solution to the race problem or an answer to the race question in the United States But there is some agreement on some race issues that cuts across racial and ideological lines for example with some black immigrants from Africa and the Caribbean articulating positions that are in conformity with the positions of those who are in the conservative movement contrary to what most black Americans believe Other immigrants including black ones are squarely within the liberal tradition of the Democratic party And there are those who don't embrace Republican or Democratic positions but take an independent position on race matters that is also different from the position taken by independents in the American political mainstream The race question may be far from being resolved But the views proposals and solutions presented in this book may help to point in the right direction toward a final solution to the problem that the United States has faced since slavery

Africa is in a Mess Godfrey Mwakikagile, 2006 This is a revised and updated edition in which the author examines the problems of post colonial Africa He contends that the problems have existed since independence in the sixties and have been made worse through the years by a combination of factors It is a blunt assessment and prescribes some solutions to Africa's problems focusing on internal factors but without exonerating external forces from what has happened on the continent through the decades

Racial Justice in America David B. Mustard, 2003-09-16 Racial Justice in America examines a volatile social issue that is always in the news focusing on five critical areas criminal justice education employment living accommodations and political participation By 1451 Africans were used as slaves in the Madeiras and Canary Islands Not until 1502 did they arrive in the New World All told nearly 10 million Africans equal to the year 2000 populations of Virginia and Mississippi combined were transplanted across the Atlantic as slaves Despite the termination of the U S slave trade in 1807 and emancipation after the Civil War members of a racial couple married as late as 1958 were jailed for one year for breaking Virginia's antimiscegenation law So where are we today This
