

The background of the slide is a close-up photograph of an antique map. The map is made of parchment or aged paper, showing various geographical features, rivers, and place names in a historical script. A wooden ruler is placed diagonally across the map, and a compass is visible in the lower-left corner, suggesting a theme of exploration, navigation, or historical study.

OUTLINE OF THE PRINCIPLES OF HISTORY JOHANN GUSTAV. DROYSEN, 2018 Outline of the Principles of History Johann Gustav Droysen, 1970 Outline of the Principles of History Johann Gustav Droysen, 2006 Outline of the Principles of History Johann Gustav Droysen, 1893 Historical Truth, Historical Criticism, and Ideology Helwig Schmidt-Glintzer, Achim Mittag, Jörn Rüsen, 2004-12-01 Three issues essential to our insight into the concept and function of historical consciousness and the description thereof form the core of this book historical truth historical comment and criticism and ideology including the historian's trustworthiness Taking as a point of departure the workings of these concepts in Chinese historical thinking the volume carefully draws comparisons with similar topics in the Western tradition It thus advocates and shows a truly comparative approach that sets the stage for an intercultural dialogue on this important subject The first comprehensive work on the political and cognitive dimensions of Chinese historical consciousness set against its Western counterpart A Global History of History Daniel Woolf, 2011-02-17 An illustrated survey of global historical scholarship from the ancient world to the present for courses in theory and historiography Systematicity Paul Hoyningen-Huene, 2013-03-27 In Systematicity Paul Hoyningen Huene answers the question What is science by proposing that scientific knowledge is primarily distinguished from other forms of knowledge especially everyday knowledge by being more systematic Science is here understood in the broadest possible sense encompassing not only the natural sciences but also mathematics the social sciences and the humanities The author develops his thesis in nine dimensions in which it is claimed that science is more systematic than other forms of knowledge regarding descriptions explanations predictions the defense of knowledge claims critical discourse epistemic connectedness an ideal of completeness knowledge generation and the representation of knowledge He compares his view with positions on the question held by philosophers from Aristotle to Nicholas Rescher The book concludes with an exploration of some consequences of Hoyningen Huene's view concerning the genesis and dynamics of science the relationship of science and common sense normative implications of the thesis and the demarcation criterion between science and pseudo science Giotto the Painter. Volume 1: Life Michael Viktor Schwarz, Pia Theis, 2023-04-17 Giotto 1334 is the first European artist about whom it is possible to write following the schema of life and work The situation of the sources however is complicated On Giotto's life there are on the one hand biographical accounts from the mid fourteenth century onwards that responded to various ideological requirements patriotism humanism Renaissance ideology cult of the artist on the other there is extensive documentary material from Giotto's lifetime which seems to reflect less the biography of an artist than that of a bourgeois businessman resolutely climbing the social ladder The present volume focuses on this second aspect of the Giotto figure's double life relating it to the form of existence of the pre modern artist Giotto the Painter. Volume 1-3 Michael Viktor Schwarz, 2023-04-17 Vol 1 Life Giotto 1334 is the first European artist about whom it is possible to write following the schema of life and work The situation of the sources however is complicated On Giotto's life there are on the one hand biographical accounts from the mid fourteenth century onwards that responded to various ideological requirements patriotism humanism Renaissance ideology cult of the artist on the other there is extensive documentary material from Giotto's lifetime which seems to reflect less the biography of an artist than that of a bourgeois businessman resolutely climbing the social ladder The present volume focuses on this second aspect of the Giotto figure's double life relating it to the form of existence of the pre-modern artist Vol 2 Works The paintings examined and contextualised in this volume are those secured for Giotto through early written sources These sources also help to reconstruct the sequence of his works and artistic inventions as is plausible in the context of media culture in the decades around and after 1300 while Giotto was spiritually and intellectually formed in the sphere of the Florentine Dominicans his artistic path began in Rome in the shadow of the Curia The breakthrough to his own artistic concept came immediately before and during his work in Padua In addition to prominent churchmen ecclesiastical institutions and the King of Naples his clients were predominantly members of Italy's urban and financial elites The adoption and further development of his inventions by other especially Sienese painters pressured him in his later years to try new approaches again Vol 3 Survival Giotto is considered by many to be the founder of modern painting This thesis is discussed and modified in the present volume on an empirical basis What emerges is that Giotto's impact cannot be reduced simply to the introduction of the study of nature Rather his art was involved in the development of pictorial idioms that were attuned to the skills and interests of their audiences The new approaches in his painting contributed in particular to the possibility of examining and communicating psychological narrative and allegorical content of great complexity outside the media of language and text which not only changed the face of European art but certainly contributed to the intellectual opening of Western societies

A Global History of Modern Historiography Georg G Iggers, Q. Edward Wang, Supriya Mukherjee, 2013-09-13 So far histories of historiography have concentrated almost exclusively on the West This is the first book to offer a history of modern historiography from a global perspective Tracing the transformation of historical writings over the past two and half centuries the book portrays the transformation of historical writings under the effect of professionalization which served as a model not only for Western but also for much of non-Western historical studies At the same time it critically examines the reactions in post-modern and post-colonial thought to established conceptions of scientific historiography A main theme of the book is how historians in the non-Western world not only adopted or adapted Western ideas but also explored different approaches rooted in their own cultures
