The Queen of Hearts (Volume 2 of 2) (EasyRead Super Large 20pt Edition) Wilkie Collins, 1902 The Queen of Hearts Wilkie Collins, 2020 Mr Wilkie Collins can tell a story well and he has an ingenious knack of stringing stories together After Dark consisted of a series of stories and admirable they were and The Queen of Hearts is a work of the same description The author lives in the region of fiction but he does not aim at the higher objects contemplated by the more gifted writers of his class He does not affect to be profound philosophical or didactic His great object is so to write as to sustain interest and to amuse But though he does not aim at anything beyond that thanks to his sympathies with many of the better qualities of human nature he achieves something much higher The Queen of Hearts Wilkie Collins, 2021-08-07 The Queen of Hearts Collins collection of 10 short stories with one connecting narrative The Queen of Hearts the school nickname of Jessie who is staying with her guardian Griffith a lawyer lives with his two brothers a clergyman and a doctor in an isolated house in South Wales Not all is as it seems however and love is in the air just to complicate matters The Works of Wilkie Collins Wilkie Collins, 1900 The Queen of Hearts Wilkie Collins, 2015-11-06 THE Monktons of Wincot Abbey bore a sad character for want of sociability in our county They never went to other people s houses and excepting my father and a lady and her daughter living near them never received anybody under their own roof Proud as they all certainly were it was not pride but dread which kept them thus apart from their neighbors The family had suffered for generations past from the horrible affliction of hereditary insanity and the members of it shrank from exposing their calamity to others as they must have exposed it if they had mingled with the busy little world around them There is a frightful story of a crime committed in past times by two of the Monktons near relatives from which the first appearance of the insanity was always supposed to date but it is needless for me to shock any one by repeating it It is enough to say that at intervals almost every form of madness appeared in the family monomania being the most frequent manifestation of the affliction among them I have these particulars and one or two yet to be related from my father At the period of my youth but three of the Monktons were left at the Abbey Mr and Mrs Monkton and their only child Alfred heir to the property The one other member of this the elder branch of the family who was then alive was Mr Monkton s younger brother Stephen He was an unmarried man possessing a fine estate in Scotland but he lived almost entirely on the Continent and bore the reputation of being a shameless profligate The family at Wincot held almost as little communication with him as with their neighbors The Queen of Hearts Wilkie Collins, 1874 The Queen of Hearts Wilkie Collins, 2019-09-29 William Wilkie Collins was an English novelist playwright and short story writer best known for The Woman in White and The Moonstone The last has been called the first modern English detective novel The Queen of Hearts , 1820 The Queen of Hearts (Volume 2 of 3) (EasyRead Super
