Quaker Constitutionalism And The Political Thought Of John Dickinson:

Quaker Constitutionalism and the Political Thought of John Dickinson Jane E. Calvert, 2009 This book traces the theory of Quaker constitutionalism from the early Quakers through Founding Father John Dickinson to Martin Luther King Jr A Distinct Judicial Power Scott Douglas Gerber, 2011-05-05 This title provides a comprehensive critical analysis of the origins of judicial independence in the United States The book examines the political theory of an independent judiciary and chronicles how each of the original 13 states and their colonial antecedents treated their respective judiciaries Women Writing Race in the Seventeenth-Century English Atlantic Kristina Lucenko, 2025-05-21 Women Writing Race in the Seventeenth Century English Atlantic Civil Agents highlights early modern women writers invocations of civility to reach for the privileges of whiteness The women studied in this book were writing in various textual modes and span boundaries of ideology class religion and race Royalist writer Margaret Cavendish notorious German princess Mary Carleton early Quaker missionaries to Barbados Lydia Fell Alice Curwen and Elizabeth Hooton and Patience Boston a Native woman from Monomoy on Cape Cod As this book explores women writing in the early English Atlantic engaged civility as a concept and an idiom whose racialist implications were becoming codified Some of the women analyzed embraced and leveraged the practice of civility as a form of agency while others resisted and were marginalized by it The Heart of the Declaration Steven C. A. Pincus, 2016-01-01 Cover Half title Title Copyright Contents Acknowledgments Introduction ONE Mount Vernon Patriot Estate TWO Patriots and the Imperial Crisis of the 1760s THREE Making a Patriot Government Epilogue Notes Index A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T V W Y Z World of Trouble Richard Godbeer, 2019-11-26 An intimate account of the American Revolution as seen through the eyes of a Quaker pacifist couple living in Philadelphia Historian Richard Godbeer presents a richly layered and intimate account of the American Revolution as experienced by a Philadelphia Quaker couple Elizabeth Drinker and the merchant Henry Drinker who barely survived the unique perils that Quakers faced during that conflict Spanning a half century before during and after the war this gripping narrative illuminates the Revolution s darker side as patriots vilified threatened and in some cases killed pacifist Quakers as alleged enemies of the revolutionary cause Amid chaos and danger the Drinkers tried as best they could to keep their family and faith intact Through one couple s story Godbeer opens a window on a uniquely turbulent period of American history uncovers the domestic social and religious lives of Quakers in the late eighteenth century and situates their experience in the context of transatlantic culture and trade A master storyteller takes his readers on a moving journey they will never forget Press and Speech Under Assault Wendell Bird, 2016-01-07 The early Supreme Court justices wrestled with how much press and speech is protected by freedoms of press and speech before and under the First Amendment This book discusses the Supreme Court justices before John Marshall and their confrontations with those freedoms Its conclusions are surprising about their broad understanding of freedoms of press and speech before 1798 and about their split over the constitutionality of the Sedition Act of 1798 The book also summarizes the recognized prosecutions under that law and then doubles their number by confirming 22 additional prosecutions under the Sedition Act William Penn: Political Writings Andrew R. Murphy, 2020-12-10 William Penn 1644 1718 Quaker activist theorist of liberty of conscience and colonial founder and proprietor played a central role in the movement for religious liberty on both sides of the Atlantic for more than four decades This volume presents for the first time a fully annotated scholarly edition of Penn s political writings over the course of his long public career tracing his thinking from his early theorisation of religious toleration and liberty of conscience in England as a leading member of the Society of Friends during the 1670s to his colonial undertaking in Pennsylvania a decade later his controversial role in the years leading up to the 1688 Revolution and the ongoing consequences of that Revolution to his future prospects Penn s political writings provide an illuminating window into the increasingly sophisticated and influential movement for liberty of conscience in the early modern world Political Community in Revolutionary Pennsylvania, 1774-1800 Kenneth Owen, 2018-08-29 Political Community in Revolutionary Pennsylvania challenges the ways we understand popular sovereignty in the American Revolution Whereas previous histories place undue focus on elite political thought or analysis based on class this study argues that it was ordinary citizens that cared most about the establishment of a proper representative publicly legitimate political process Popular activism constrained the options available to leaders and created a system through which the actions of government were made more representative of the will of the community Political Community in Revolutionary Pennsylvania analyzes political developments in Pennsylvania from 1774 when Americans united in opposition to Britain s Intolerable Acts through to 1800 and the election of Thomas Jefferson It looks at the animating philosophy of the Pennsylvania state constitution of 1776 a radical manifesto which espoused a vision of popular sovereignty in which government was devolved from the people only where necessary Even when governmental institutions were necessary their legitimacy rested on being able to clearly demonstrate that they operated on popular consent expressed in a variety of forms of popular mobilization The Correspondence of Catharine Macaulay Catharine Macaulay, 2020 Catharine Macaulay was a celebrated republican historian whose account of the reasons for the seventeenth century English Revolution the parliamentary period and its aftermath was widely read by the mothers and fathers of American Independence and by central players in the French Revolution As well as publishing her eight volume history spanning the period from the accession of James I to the Glorious Revolution of 1688 she wrote political pamphlets offered a sketch of a republican constitution for Corsica advocated parliamentary reform and published a response to Edmund Burke s Reflections on the Revolution in France Her Letters on Education of 1790 made a decisive impact on the thought of Mary Wollstonecraft and her Treatise on the Immutability of Moral Truth opposed the skeptical and utilitarian attitudes being developed by Hume and others This volume brings together for the first time all the available letters between her and her wide ranging correspondents who include George Washington John Adams Abigail Adams Mercy Otis Warren James Otis Benjamin Rush David Hume James

Boswell Thomas Hollis John Wilkes Horace Walpole Mary Wollstonecraft Jacques Pierre Brissot de Warville and many other luminaries of the eighteenth century enlightenment It includes an extended introduction to her life and works and offers a unique insight into the thinking of her friends and correspondents during the period between 1760 and 1790 the crucible for the development of modern representative democracies The Correspondence of Catharine Macaulay will appeal to scholars of philosophy political thought women s studies and eighteenth century history as well as those interested in the development of democratic ideas The Royalist Revolution Eric Nelson, 2014-10-06 The founding fathers were rebels against the British Parliament Eric Nelson argues not the Crown As a result of their labors the 1787 Constitution assigned its new president far more power than any British monarch had wielded for 100 years On one side of the Atlantic were kings without monarchy on the other monarchy without kings
