Indentured Muslims in the Diaspora Maurits S. Hassankhan, Goolam Vahed, Lomارش Roopnarine, 2016-11-10 This is the fourth publication originating from the conference Legacy of Slavery and Indentured Labour Past Present and Future which was organised in June 2013 by the Institute of Graduate Studies and Research IGSR Anton de Kom University of Suriname The core of the book is based on a conference panel which focused specifically on the experience of Muslim with indentured migrants and their descendants This is a significant contribution since the focus of most studies on Indian indenture has been almost exclusively on Hindu religion and culture even though an estimated seventeen percent of migrants were Muslims This book thus fills an important gap in the indentured historiography both to understand that past as well as to make sense of the present when Muslim identities are undergoing rapid changes in response to both local and global realities The book includes a chapter on the experiences of Muslim indentured immigrants of Indonesian descent who settled in Suriname The core questions in the study are as follows What role did Islam play in the lives of Indian Muslim migrants in their new settings during indenture and in the post indenture period How did Islam help migrants adapt and acculturate to their new environment What have been the similarities and differences in practices traditions and beliefs between Muslim communities in the different countries and between them and the country of origin How have Islamic practices and Muslim identities transformed over time What role does Islam play in the Muslims lives in these countries in the contemporary period In order to respond to these questions this book examines the historic place of Islam in migrants place of origin and provides a series of case studies that focus on the various countries to which the indentured Indians migrated such as Mauritius South Africa Guyana Trinidad Suriname and Fiji to understand the institutionalisation of Islam in these settings and the actual lived experience of Muslims which is culturally and historically specific bound by the circumstances of individuals location in time and space The chapters in this volume also provide a snapshot of the diversity and similarity of lived Muslim experiences

We Two Gillian Gill, 2009-05-19 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER A delectable double bio Talk about Victoria s secret A fascinating portrait of a genuine love match but one in which the partners dealt with surprisingly modern issues USA Today It was the most influential marriage of the nineteenth century and one of history s most enduring love stories Traditional biographies tell us that Queen Victoria inherited the throne as a na ve teenager when the British Empire was at the height of its power and seemed doomed to find failure as a monarch and misery as a woman until she married her German cousin Albert and accepted him as her lord and master Now renowned chronicler Gillian Gill turns this familiar story on its head revealing a strong feisty queen and a brilliant fragile prince working together to build a family based on support trust and fidelity qualities neither had seen much of as children The love affair that emerges is far more captivating complex and relevant than that depicted in any previous account The epic relationship began poorly The cousins first met as teenagers for a few brief awkward chaperoned weeks in 1836 At seventeen charming rather than beautiful Victoria already showed signs of wanting her own way Albert the boy who had been groomed for her since birth was chubby self absorbed and showed no interest in girls let alone this princess So when they met again in 1839 as queen and presumed prince consort to be neither had particularly high hopes But the queen was delighted to discover a grown man refined accomplished and whiskered Albert is beautiful Victoria wrote and she proposed just three days later As Gill reveals Victoria and Albert entered their marriage longing for intimate companionship yet each was determined to be the ruler This dynamic would continue through the years each spouse headstrong and impassioned eager to lead the marriage on his or her own terms For two decades Victoria and Albert engaged in a very public contest for dominance Against all odds the marriage succeeded but it was always a work in progress And in the end it was Albert s early death that set the Queen free to create the myth of her marriage as a peaceful idyll and her husband as Galahad pure and perfect As Gill shows the marriage of Victoria and Albert was great not because it was perfect but because it was passionate and complicated Wonderfully nuanced surprising often acerbic and informed by revealing excerpts from the pair s journals and letters We Two is a revolutionary portrait of a queen and her prince a fascinating modern perspective on a couple who have become a legend BONUS This edition contains a reader s guide Gardeners' Chronicle ,1895 Gardeners' Chronicle and Agricultural Gazette ,1869 The Garden ,1886
