The Purpose Effect Dan Pontefract,2016-05-10 Pontefract combines years of experience and research on employee engagement to create a work about the three crucial areas of purpose individual workplace role and organizational When one area is lacking this three legged barstool starts to wobble and the results range from disengagement to bankruptcy A business leader that is committed to purpose will create purpose for his/her employees. An employee that feels his/her sense of purpose on the job will be an invaluable asset to productivity and success. An organization centered on purpose will benefit every stakeholder from employees to society in general. This sweet spot of purpose creates a reciprocal relationship between all three areas and sits at the center of Pontefract's work.

Second Thoughts Janet M. Ruane, Karen A. Cerulo, 2014-08-21 Co-authored by Karen A. Cerulo, the Eastern Sociological Society's Robin L. Williams, Lecturer for 2013-2014. Do birds of a feather flock together or do opposites attract? Is honesty the best policy? Are children our most precious commodity? Is education the great equalizer? Adages like these shape our social life. This Sixth Edition of Second Thoughts reviews several popular beliefs and notes how these conventional wisdoms cannot be taken at face value but instead require careful second thoughts. This unique text encourages students to step back and sharpen their analytic focus with 25 essays that use social research to expose the gray areas of commonly held beliefs, revealing the complexity of social reality and sharpening students' sociological vision.

Law of the Internet F. Lawrence Street, 2009

Communication and Community in the New Media Age Wang Bin, 2021-05-30. This book investigates the relationship between information communication and community development in China in the new media age, drawing on theoretical resources from journalism, communication, urban sociology, community management, and the activities of social movements. Contrasting existing scholarship that centers on new technologies and virtual aspects of today's communication, the study highlights community residents' daily praxis in real social spaces and the interaction between online and offline communications. Through content analysis, case studies, questionnaire surveys, and in-depth interviews, the author explores the social engagement of communication in public expressions and negotiations among Chinese urban communities. From micro, meso, and macro levels respectively, three interactive mechanisms are discussed: 1. media use and social consciousness and mobilization; 2. new media and changes in community governance; and 3. state-community interplay. Based on these mechanisms, the author proposes the idea of the construction of grassroots social communication, exploring approaches to the modernization of social governance and attainment of social interests by optimizing information communication. Communication and Community in the New Media Age will appeal to academics and students studying communication and social transition in China, new media and society, urban sociology, and public governance.
