John Henry Newman, Heart Speaks to Heart John Henry Newman, 2004 Geared to the reflective devotional reader the short selections are derived from Newman the priest preacher and spiritual writer Audi, Filia Saint John (of Avila), 2006 John of Avila 1499-1569 was a major figure in the ecclesial reform and spiritual renewal that finally came to pass in 16th century Spain In spite of discrimination because of his Jewish background John had an excellent education at the Universities of Salamanca and Alcala centers of Christian humanistic studies in Spain As a diocesan priest in Andalusia he labored as a preacher confessor spiritual director catechist evangelist educator and theologian He knew and helped many saints including Ignatius of Loyola Teresa of Avila and John of God Master Avila as he was called centered his efforts on the establishment of colleges and universities for the education of laity and priests and on reform of the priesthood He also directed many religious and lay people His spiritual masterpiece the Audi filia is a guide to the spiritual life in which hearing the word of God in the Scriptures and contemplating the face of Christ especially in his passion leads to personal transformation in the communion of the Father and the Son In many ways the book reflects the time in which it was written but it also transcends it to provide direction for a faithful and mature Christian life in any age Dominican Penitent

Women Maiju Lehmijoki-Gardner, 2005 Dominican Penitent Women presents a fascinating overview of the spirituality religious practices and ways of life of medieval Italian women who belonged to the Dominican Order as lay members or penitents Through selected texts readers gain a fresh perspective on the institutional and spiritual foundations of Dominican lay life but also an understanding of how these women refashioned Dominican ideals into practices that best responded to their individual and social means Their way of life created an important alternative for women who sought religious perfection in the world The first section consists of two penitent rules the Ordinationes of Munio from the late 13th century and the formal penitent rule of the early 15th century which show how penitents were to organize and live their lives The second section is dedicated to hagiographic sources The third section is made up of penitent women s religious writing The texts translated here present an overview of Dominican women s literary production that complements the writings of Catherine of Siena already available in English While Dominican penitent women held an important position in medieval piety aside from Catherine of Siena their spirituality has not attracted much scholarly attention As the first comprehensive introduction to medieval Dominican laywomen and Dominican penitent spirituality in English this book makes a significant scholarly and spiritual contribution

Cambridge Platonist Spirituality Charles Taliaferro, Alison J. Teply, 2004 This anthology collects essays poetry and treatises by a group of English philosophers from the Age of Reason who were devoted to the goodness of God and the spiritual importance of rationalism These philosophers known as the Cambridge Platonists produced a movement in philosophical theology that flourished around Cambridge University in the seventeenth century and influenced not only Great Britain but the United States and beyond Their school of thought emphasized the great goodness of God the compatibility of reason and faith an integrated life of virtue and the deep joy of living in concord with God This volume introduces and presents the key documents of the Cambridge Platonist movement while setting its thinkers in their historical and religious context the decades of turbulence and political crises surrounding the English Civil War
