Self and Other Dan Zahavi, 2014 Dan Zahavi engages with classical phenomenology philosophy of mind and a range of empirical disciplines to explore the nature of selfhood He argues that the most fundamental level of selfhood is not socially constructed or dependent upon others but accepts that certain dimensions of the self and types of self experience are other mediated

Real Recognition Marie-Elisabeth Lei Pihl, 2022-10-03 Real Recognition investigates the complexities of literary and social recognition with the aim of putting a fresh cross disciplinary spin on reader identification and social acknowledgment Engaging with contemporary Danish and Anglophone works on racialization disability and gender Marie Elisabeth Lei Pihl argues in favor of a close relation between aesthetic appeals to recognition and the political dimensions of literary texts Moreover she proposes a framework bent on experience and relations as opposed to identity and status for articulating new fruitful understandings of how literary texts call for aesthetic and social recognition Based on this she argues that literary texts can make readers get what social validation is about and thereby help us redefine a key concept in the social sciences Marie Elisabeth Lei Pihl earned her PhD in literature and sociology from the University of Southern Denmark in 2020 Currently she works as a postdoctoral researcher within narrative medicine and literature based social interventions at the University of Southern Denmark in collaboration with the National Institute of Public Health in Copenhagen Chapter 3 of this book is available for free in PDF format as Open Access from the individual product page at www.routledge.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

The Human as the Other Matthew Rukgaber, 2025-02-20 Philosophical anthropology investigates what makes us human but it has produced accounts that exclude some members of our species It relies often on non naturalistic philosophies of consciousness that locate humanity in the cognitive capacity to objectively represent things to reason teleologically and use tools to use symbols and language or to be self conscious and question existence This work pursues an alternative thoroughly naturalistic philosophical anthropology by combining Arnold Gehlen s theory of our behaviorally detached and institutionally structured impulses with Maurice Merleau Ponty s views on intersubjectivity affect sexuality and social institutions It locates the human within the unique structure of our capacity for feeling which produces an inclusive account of the human as the other or Homo alter Humans are deeply and thoroughly dependent on affective bodily communicative bonds in which other humans appear as sources of pleasure communicative meaning institutional norms and interpersonal approbation and disapprobation However this socio biological account of the human denies that human nature alone can prescribe the necessary form of institutions such as the home which is a criticism of any potential political anthropology A result of this focus on our social and affective natures is a novel account of shame as a response to institutional and interpersonal exclusion Failing to recognize humanity within our dependency on others and the structure of feeling is a widespread problem in philosophy and society in general that contributes to the social and metaphysical exclusion of disabled persons who might lack certain forms of consciousness and cognition Reimagining philosophical anthropology as the study of the unique way that human beings are socially present to one another this work challenges such dehumanization

Empathy and Ethics Magnus Englander, Susi Ferrarello, 2023-05-05 This book represents a unique indispensable reflection on the interconnection between empathy and ethics To what extent is it right to be empathetic Can empathy be unethical Or is there an ethical obligation to be empathetic Do we educate our citizens and train our professionals to use the right form of empathy Phenomenological ethics is a relatively new approach to ethics whose emphasis is put on the description of the lived experience and the ethical phenomenon The essays offer phenomenological descriptions of the thorny problem pertaining to the interconnection of empathy and ethics essential for professionals and scholars of different fields such as philosophy psychiatry health science psychology and sociology Contributors Michael Agostinelli Jr Elodie Boubil Francesca Brencio Manuel Camassa Scott D Churchill Nicolas de Warren Craig Derksen John J Drummond ngrid Vendrell Ferran Jannik M Hansen Simon H fding Joel Krueger Carlos Lobo Esteban Mar n vila Alexander Montes Dermot Moran Henning N renberg Tone Roald Eva Schwarz Andrea Staiti Joona Taipale Stefano Vincini Maren Wehrle Dan Zahavi Time and Body Christian Tewes, Giovanni Stanghellini, 2020-11-12 This book advances the development of phenomenological psychopathology and demonstrates its applicability to a spectrum of mental disorders Radical Freud Thomas Olver, 2025-02-28 Radical Freud reveals a radical dimension to Sigmund Freud s sexual theory that has previously been neglected Thomas Olver argues that Freud s radical heritage has been transformed into an orthodox school with an internal stasis that is unassailable from within but increasingly challenged from without as irrelevant Olver offers a return to the radical elements of Freud s work first by reviewing the ways in which Freud s pioneering sexual theory has been vulgarised since his death and by recentring his texts The bisexuality thesis is then reconstructed based on a close reading of key texts and contrasted with the better known Oedipus theory Olver then explores the philosophical and clinical consequences of this parallel line of sexual theory Radical Freud will be of great interest to psychoanalysts as well as to academics and scholars of psychoanalytic studies gender and queer studies sociology anthropology history and philosophy
