Indigenous Men and Masculinities Robert Alexander Innes, Kim Anderson, 2015-11-06 What do we know of masculinities in non patriarchal societies Indigenous peoples of the Americas and beyond come from traditions of gender equity complementarity and the sacred feminine concepts that were unimaginable and shocking to Euro western peoples at contact Indigenous Men and Masculinities edited by Kim Anderson and Robert Alexander Innes brings together prominent thinkers to explore the meaning of masculinities and being a man within such traditions further examining the colonial disruption and imposition of patriarchy on Indigenous men Building on Indigenous knowledge systems Indigenous feminism and queer theory the sixteen essays by scholars and activists from Canada the U S and New Zealand open pathways for the nascent field of Indigenous masculinities The authors explore subjects of representation through art and literature as well as Indigenous masculinities in sport prisons and gangs Indigenous Men and Masculinities highlights voices of Indigenous male writers traditional knowledge keepers ex gang members war veterans fathers youth two spirited people and Indigenous men working to end violence against women It offers a refreshing vision toward equitable societies that celebrate healthy and diverse masculinities Gender Issues and the Library Carol Smallwood, Lura Sanborn, 2017-11-20 With the legalization of same sex marriage and the explosion of LGBTQ news coverage in recent years gender studies is a subject of intense interest in popular media and a part of the curriculum at many colleges Libraries realize the importance of supporting the field yet many have difficulty finding resources and programming ideas This book provides case studies and a range of innovative solutions for better meeting patron needs Twenty seven chapters are arranged into sections covering Research and Library Instruction History and Herstory Programming Collections and Beyond and Resources Sport, Dance and Embodied Identities Noel Dyck, Eduardo P. Archetti, 2020-08-20 Sport and dance command the passions and devotion of countless athletes dancers and fans worldwide Although conventionally thought to reside within separate social realms these two embodied cultural forms are revealed in this benchmark volume to share a vital capacity to constitute and express identities through their practiced movements and scripted forms Thus the work of choreographers and coaches along with the performances of dancers and athletes offer not merely entertainment and aesthetic accomplishment but also powerful means for celebrating existing social arrangements and cultural ideals or alternately for imagining and advocating new ones Drawing on a wide selection of sport and dance activities from around the world this book elucidates the ways in which embodied performances both mirror and reshape social life It traces for example how football salsa and tango can each be employed to articulate or rewrite national and gender identities Also examined are children s sport and the dynamics by which immigration and cultural integration along with the socialization of children and youth may be directed through the organization of community sport The volume investigates the marshalling of sport and dance in settings from Africa to Ireland as vehicles for framing moral issues that revolve around the appropriate use protection and exhibition of the body

This innovative study establishes the paradoxical fashion in which dance and sport can unite certain people and communities while at the same time serving exclusionary and nationalistic purposes Everyday Masculinities and Extreme Sport Victoria Robinson, 2008-09-01 Rock climbing is one of today's most popular extreme sports. Although many women are involved, the sport retains a particularly male image and culture. Everyday Masculinities and Extreme Sport presents the first in-depth study of rock climbing in the UK, analysing what it reveals about the contemporary construction and performance of masculinity through sport. One of the key concerns of the book is the relationship between everyday masculinity and the pursuit of the extraordinary through sport. Drawing on insights from sociology and gender studies, the book challenges traditional approaches to the analysis of sport.

The Toxic War on Masculinity Nancy R. Pearcey, 2023-06-27 Why Can't We Hate Men asks a headline in the Washington Post. A trendy hashtag is #KillAllMen. Books are sold titled I Hate Men: The End of Men and Are Men Necessary. How did the idea arise that masculinity is dangerous and destructive? Bestselling author Nancy Pearcey leads you on a fascinating excursion through American history to discover why the script for masculinity turned toxic and how to fix it. Pearcey then turns to surprising findings from sociology. Religion is often cast as a cause of domestic abuse. But research shows that authentically committed Christian men test out as the most loving and engaged husbands and fathers. They have the lowest rates of divorce and domestic violence of any group in America. Yes, domestic abuse is an urgent issue, and Pearcey does not mince words in addressing it. But the sociological facts explode the negative stereotypes and show that Christianity has the power to overcome toxic behavior in men and reconcile the sexes, an unexpected finding that has stood up to rigorous empirical testing.

Dirty Whites and Dark Secrets Sally Hirsh-Dickinson, 2011 The first full-length scholarly study of Peyton Place. Grace Metalious's classic story of New England indiscretion.

Genders, Cultures, and Literacies Barbara J. Guzzetti, 2021-11-29 This volume brings together leading scholars in their fields who offer much needed and wide-ranging perspectives on the intersections of genders, cultures, and literacies. As incidents of racial and gender aggression grow in number and in global attention, it is essential to understand how racial and gender identities and their expressions interplay and influence literacy development and practice. Contributors examine how social identities intersect and are expressed in literacy practices across an array of school and out-of-school settings and discuss how gender and race are represented in individuals' multimodal practices. Chapters address such topics as the literacy practices of incarcerated fathers of color, Black girls' literacies, Indigenous students' cultural literacies, the writing practices of Latinx women for identity representation, and more. Ideal for scholars in literacy studies, gender studies, and cultural studies, this volume is a necessary and original update to the ways cultural, racial, and gender identities are viewed in current educational and sociocultural climates.

Emotion in Texts for Children and Young Adults Karen Coats, Gretchen Papazian, 2023-01-06 Emotion in Texts for Children and Young Adults Moving stories takes up key issues in affect studies while putting forward new approaches and ways of thinking about the intricate entanglements of emotion, affect, and story in relation to the functions, processes, and influences of texts designed for youth With an emphasis on national literatures and international scholarship it examines a variety of storytelling forms formats genres and media crafted for readers ranging from the very young to the newly adult Layering recent cognitive approaches to emotion affect studies and feminist perspectives on emotion it investigates not only what texts for children and young adults have to say about emotion but also how such texts try to move their readers In this the chapters draw attention to the ways narrative literary texts address elicit shape and or embody emotion The Utne Reader ,1991 The Terrestrial Biosphere S.T. Trudgill,2014-09-25 Terrestrial Biosphere tries to pose the questions which underlie the many sided debate of how to respond to and influence change How should we view nature What do we do for the best how should we act what are we trying to achieve and what should we be guided by In doing so the book introduces and attempts to analyse not only scientific aspects of the debate but also cultural attitudes and values the notions of ecosystem stability are now challenged and it is also clear that ecosystems are renewable but not repeatable It finds that prescriptive solutions based on current constructs may not be adequate Feeling that analysis should lead to advocacy the author believes that if we can t improve predictability we have to increase adaptability which means that ecological and social capacity building should be advocated This is seen in terms of concepts institutions attitudes and values which allow for a plurality of meanings and which can cope with surprise and unforeseen change and which also facilitates responses to change
