Change the Narrative: How Reading 100 Books in a Year Changed Mine Elliot Yi, 2019-07-16 A journey that started without the intention of a transformation results in seismic change and growth Buckle in take a wild ride down the path of creating habits and changing mindsets Detoxing American Schools Ernest J. Zarra III, 2020-09-15 Detoxing America Schools From Social Agency to Academic Urgency examines the issue of toxicity in public education institutions Today s students are exposed to personal beliefs lifestyle practices and politicized educational policies many of which are in contrast to the values of their upbringing The innate toxic intentions of some teachers are revealed by their unabashed calls for students to take sides through avenues of shaming and even civil disobedience Schools have become vessels of social agency The time has come to detox American education and to call for teachers to return to the urgent fundamental mission of educating students academically Too many teachers are following the paradigm found on many college campuses as they use prior experience to stir up students and bring new levels of emotion into their classrooms The classroom environment has flipped and what was once tolerance has become the new toxic intolerance Fractious Americans seem addicted to the use of polarized issues as social and emotional intoxicants Groups are strategic in seizing upon differences to ensure augmentation and marginalization upon ideological lines intensified often by the flames of social media and intolerant activism College students emerging from Gen Z are more radicalized from their time at college Unless American educators agree to step back from certain poisonous rhetoric and noxious activism our nation will continue to lose sight of the academic urgency before us and with it a generation of children Field & Stream ,1974-02 FIELD STREAM America s largest outdoor sports magazine celebrates the outdoor experience with great stories compelling photography and sound advice while honoring the traditions hunters and fishermen have passed down for generations Boys' Life ,1952-02 Boys Life is the official youth magazine for the Boy Scouts of America Published since 1911 it contains a proven mix of news nature sports history fiction science comics and Scouting Are We Done Fighting? Matthew Legge, 2019-05-28 Powerful tools for spreading peace in your community Unfounded beliefs and hateful political and social divisions that can cascade into violence are threatening to pull the world apart Responding to fear and aggression strategically and with compassion is vital if we are to push back against the politics of hate and live in greater safety and harmony But how to do it Are We Done Fighting is brimming with the latest research practical activities and inspirational stories of success for cultivating inner change and spreading peace at the community level and beyond Coverage includes An explanation of the different styles of conflict Cognitive biases that help explain polarized and lose lose positions Practical methods and activities for changing our own and others minds When punishment works and doesn t and how to encourage discipline in children without using violence The skill of self compassion and ways to reduce prejudice in ourselves and others Incredible programs that are rebuilding trust between people after genocide Packed with inspiration and cutting edge findings from fields including neuroscience social psychology and behavioural economics Are We Done Fighting is an essential toolkit for activists community and peace groups and students and instructors working to build dialogue understanding and peace as the antidote to the politics of hate and division AWARDS SILVER 2019 Nautilus Book Awards Social Change Social Justice Using Apps for Learning Across the Curriculum Richard Beach, David O'Brien, 2014-10-17 How can apps be used to foster learning with literacy across the curriculum This book offers both a theoretical framework for considering app affordances and practical ways to use apps to build students disciplinary literacies and to foster a wide range of literacy practices Using Apps for Learning Across the Curriculum presents a wide range of different apps and also assesses their value features methods for and apps related to planning instruction and assessing student learning identifies favorite apps whose affordances are most likely to foster certain disciplinary literacies includes resources and apps for professional development provides examples of student learning in the classroom A website www.usingipads.pbworks.com with resources for teaching and further reading for each chapter a link to a blog for continuing conversations about topics in the book appsforlearningliteracies.com and more enhance the usefulness of the book Maker Literacy Lynn Pawloski, Cindy Wall, 2016-11-07 This book takes the creativity and inventiveness of the maker movement and applies that energy in a new way to help children learn across all subject areas as well as broaden their world view Traditional library literacy programs have helped many children foster a love of reading but to prepare this next generation of learners this programming needs to be modified to include technology The inherent creativity and inventiveness of the Maker Movement embracing both classic and innovative technological activities provides the perfect bridge to invigorate expand and update these programs This alternative to conventional library literacy programming will help children learn throughout all subject areas see additional possibilities and make connections in the world around them With this guide readers can discover how to apply maker literacy to introduce connections that help children better understand that their experiences in life are interrelated that art can be made on a 3D printer and that science and technology are an essential part of design This holistic approach provides a myriad of creative opportunities for both teaching staff and the children they serve A great resource for youth services librarians in public libraries this guide to infusing library programs with technology and maker activities to motivate learning will also appeal to preschool and elementary librarians educators and parents The Violence Inside Us Chris Murphy, 2020-09-01 An engrossing moving and utterly motivating account of the human stakes of gun violence in America Samantha Power Pulitzer Prize winning author of The Education of an Idealist Is America destined to always be a violent nation This sweeping history by U S senator Chris Murphy explores the origins of our violent impulses the roots of our obsession with firearms and the mythologies that prevent us from confronting our national crisis In many ways the United States sets the pace for other nations to follow Yet on the most important human concern the need to keep ourselves and our loved ones safe from physical harm America isn't a leader We are disturbingly laggard To confront this problem we must first understand it In this carefully researched and deeply emotional book Senator Chris Murphy dissects our country's violence filled history and the role that our unique obsession with firearms plays in this national epidemic Murphy tells the story of his profound personal transformation in the wake of the mass murder at Newtown and his subsequent immersion in the complicated web of influences that drive American violence Murphy comes to the conclusion that while America's relationship to violence is indeed unique America is not inescapably violent Even as he details the reasons we've tolerated so much bloodshed for so long he explains that we have the power to change Murphy takes on the familiar arguments obliterates the stale talking points and charts the way to a fresh less polarized conversation about violence and the weapons that enable it a conversation we urgently need in order to transform the national dialogue and save lives
