

A woman with blonde hair and glasses is lying in bed, reading a book. She is covered by a white blanket, with only her head and the book visible. The background is dark, and there are faint, ghostly hands reaching out from the top corners of the frame. The text "8 OF THE BEST HORROR SHORT STORIES TO READ ONLINE FOR FREE" is written in a white, stylized font across the top half of the image.

Book Clubs Elizabeth Long, 2003-08 Book clubs are everywhere these days And women talk about the clubs they belong to with surprising emotion But why are the clubs so important to them And what do the women discuss when they meet To answer questions like these Elizabeth Long spent years observing and participating in women's book clubs and interviewing members from different discussion groups Far from being an isolated activity she finds reading for club members to be an active and social pursuit a crucial way for women to reflect creatively on the meaning of their lives and their place in the social order

America's Horror Stories Kevin Revier, Fabian Alejandro Martín, 2024-12-31 America's Horror Stories U S History through Dark Tourism conducts a ghost tourist methodology to explore how slavery and racism are represented in dark tourism via ghost tours The authors travel to key sites of racist U S history including Salem Massachusetts where a witch panic was sparked by accusations of witchcraft by Tituba an enslaved woman practicing Voodoo New Orleans Louisiana which hosts the largest slave trade market the Myrtles Plantation in Francisville Louisiana and to Gettysburg Pennsylvania where the bloodiest battle of the Civil War took place marking a pivotal moment to end slavery in the nation but where Confederate ghosts are said to continue roaming the town and battlefield Acting as research ghost hunters tourists the authors go on walking and bus tours visit historical monuments stay at haunted hotels ponder objects in haunted museums and do some ghost hunting of their own They find that the ghosts conjured by tour guides ghosts of confederate soldiers American citizens and enslaved people tend to whitewash sensationalize and commercialize the horrors of U S history including slavery racism and colonialism They do not discount dark tourism entirely but recommend a ghost tourist pedagogy that critically considers social issues and structural forms of inequality that haunt us today America's Horror Stories will be of great interest to students and scholars researching and taking part in critical criminology and cultural criminology courses specifically on crime media and culture

Reading Still Matters Catherine Sheldrick Ross, Lynne (E.F.) McKechnie, Paulette M. Rothbauer, 2018-03-01 Drawing on scholarly research findings this book presents a cogent case that librarians can use to work towards prioritization of reading in libraries and in schools Reading is more important than it has ever been recent research on reading such as PEW reports and Scholastic's Kids and Family Reading Report proves that fact This new edition of Reading Matters provides powerful evidence that can be used to justify the establishment maintenance and growth of pleasure reading collections both fiction and nonfiction and of readers advisory services The authors assert that reading should be woven into the majority of library activities reference collection building provision of leisure materials readers advisory services storytelling and story time programs adult literacy programs and more This edition also addresses emergent areas of interest such as e reading e writing and e publishing multiple literacies visual texts the ascendancy of young adult fiction and fan fiction A new chapter addresses special communities of YA readers The book will help library administrators and personnel convey the importance of reading to grant funding agencies stakeholders and the public at large LIS faculty who wish to establish and maintain courses in readers advisory will find it of particular interest
