Chuck Palahniuk Francisco Collado-Rodriguez, 2013-06-06 Offering a world full of traumatized characters trapped in a consumerist society where men women sex and gender have become unstable commodities Chuck Palahniuk has become one of the most controversial of contemporary novelists This book is the first guide to bring together scholars from a full range of critical perspectives to explore three of Palahniuk's most widely studied novels Fight Club, Invisible Monsters, and Choke. Examining these works in light of such key critical themes as violence, masculinity, postmodern aesthetics, and trauma, the book also explores the ethical dimension of Palahniuk's work that is often lost in the heat of the controversies surrounding his books. Together with annotated guides to further reading, Chuck Palahniuk also includes section introductions surveying the contexts and reception of each novel, making this an essential guide for students and scholars of contemporary literature.

Symbolism 15 Rüdiger Ahrens, Klaus Stierstorfer, 2015-10-16

While paratexts among them headnotes, footnotes, or endnotes have never been absent from American literature, the last two decades have seen an explosion of the phenomenon, including mock scholarly footnotes to an extent that they seem to take over the text itself. In this Special Focus, we shall attempt to find the reasons for this astonishing development. In our first diachronic section, we shall explore such texts as might have fostered the present boom, from fictions by Edgar Allan Poe to Vladimir Nabokov to Mark Z. Danielewski. The second synchronic section will concentrate on paratexts by David Foster Wallace, perhaps the father of the post-postmodern footnote, as well as those to be found in novels by Bennett Sims, Jennifer Egan, and Junot Díaz, among others. It appears that while paratexts definitely point to a high degree of self-reflexivity in the author, they equally draw attention to the textual and authorial functions of the works in which they exist. They can thus cause a reflection on the boundaries between genres like fiction, faction, and autobiography, as well as serving to highlight a host of pedagogical and social concerns that exist in the interstices between fiction and reality.
