The Paralysis of Analysis in African American Studies Stephen Ferguson II, 2023-09-21 Stephen C Ferguson II provides a philosophical examination of Black popular culture for the first time From extensive discussion of the philosophy and political economy of Hip Hop music through to a developed exploration of the influence of the postmodernism poststructuralist ideology on African American studies he argues how postmodernism ideology plays a seminal role in justifying the relationship between corporate capitalism and Black popular culture Chapters cover topics such as cultural populism capitalism and Black liberation the philosophy of Hip Hop music and Harold Cruse s influence on the cultural turn in African American studies Ferguson combines case studies of past and contemporary Black cultural and intellectual productions with a Marxist ideological critique to provide a cutting edge reflection on the economic structure in which Black popular culture emerged He highlights the contradictions that are central to the juxtaposition of Black cultural artists as political participants in socioeconomic struggle and the political participants who perform the rigorous task of social criticism Adopting capitalism as an explanatory framework Ferguson investigates the relationship between postmodernism as social theory current manifestations of Black popular culture and the theoretical work of Black thinkers and scholars to demonstrate how African American studies have been shaped

The Fight for the Future: How People Defeated Hollywood and Saved the Internet--For Now Edward Lee, 2013 Wikipedia went dark on January 18 2012 So did thousands of other websites including search giant Google all to protest a controversial copyright bill called the Stop Online Piracy Act SOPA The protest even helped to ignite mass demonstrations on the streets of over 250 cities in all 27 countries of the European Union to stop a similar attempt to regulate the Internet under the Anti Counterfeiting Trade Agreement ACTA This book provides a gripping behind the scenes look at how people organized the largest Internet protest in history plus the largest single day demonstration in the streets of 27 countries of the European Union This grassroots movement involving millions of people won an unexpected but historic first victory in the fight for a free and open Internet

From Text to Texting Paul Vincent Budra, Clint Burnham, 2012-07-25 Literary scholars face a new and often baffling reality in the classroom students spend more time looking at glowing screens than reading printed text The social lives of these students take place in cyberspace instead of the student pub Their favorite narratives exist in video games not books How do teachers who grew up in a different world engage these students without watering down pedagogy Clint Burnham and Paul Budra have assembled a group of specialists in visual poetry graphic novels digital humanities role playing games television studies and yes even the middle brow novel to address this question Contributors give a brief description of their subject investigate how it confronts traditional notions of the literary and ask what contemporary literary theory can illuminate about their text before explaining how their subject can be taught in the 21st century classroom

Rethinking Paul's Rhetorical Education Ryan S.

Schellenberg,2013-09-03 Winner of the Canadian Society of Biblical Studies 2015 F W Beare Award Did Paul have formal training in Greco Roman rhetoric or did he learn what he knew of persuasion informally as social practice Pauline scholars recognize the importance of this question both for determining Paul s social status and for conceptualizing the nature of his letters but they have been unable to reach a consensus Using 2 Corinthians 10 13 as a test case Ryan Schellenberg undertakes a set of comparisons with non Western speakers most compellingly the Seneca orator Red Jacket to demonstrate that the rhetorical strategies Paul employs in this text are also attested in speakers known to have had no formal training in Greco Roman rhetoric Since there are no specific indicators of formal training in the way Paul uses these strategies their appearance in his letters does not constitute evidence that Paul received formal rhetorical education
