Crucified and Resurrected Ingolf U. Dalferth, 2015-11-10 This major work now available in English is considered by many to be one of the finest and most significant contributions to modern Christology. Preeminent scholar and theologian Ingolf Dalferth argues for a radical reorientation of Christology for historical, hermeneutical and theological reasons. He defends an orthodox vision of Christology in the context of a dialogue with modernity, showing why the resurrection, not the incarnation, ought to be the central idea of Christological thinking. His proposal is both pneumatological and Trinitarian and addresses themes such as soteriology, the doctrine of atonement and preaching.

A Thematic Access-Oriented Bibliography of Jesus's Resurrection Michael J. Alter, 2019-12-31 The keystone of Christianity is Jesus's physical, bodily resurrection. Present-day scholars can be significantly challenged as they forage through voluminous documents on the resurrection of Jesus. The literature measures well over seven thousand sources in English language books alone. This makes finding specific sources that are most relevant for specific scholarly purposes an arduous task. Even when a specific book is relevant, finding the parts of the book that are most relevant to the resurrection rather than other topics often requires additional effort. A Thematic Access-Oriented Bibliography of Jesus's Resurrection addresses these challenges in several ways. First, the bibliography organizes more than seven thousand English sources into twelve main categories and then thirty-four subcategories, which are designed to help you find the most relevant literature quickly and efficiently. Embedded are pro and con arguments which support efficient access through brief annotations and then annotate the diversity and complexity of the field of religion by including sources that represent a diverse range of views: theistic (e.g., Christian, Jewish, Muslim, etc.), agnostic, and nontheistic. The objective of this bibliography is to provide convenient access to relevant sources from a variety of perspectives, allowing you to browse or find the one source accurately and with ease.

Malum Ingolf U. Dalferth, 2022-05-31 The incursion of evil has always caused people to turn to the divine, to gods or to a god, in order to reorientate their life. Ingolf U. Dalferth studies the complexity of this procedure in three thought processes that deal with the central concepts in the Christian understanding of malum: as privation, a lack of good; as evil doing; and as a lack of faith. In doing so, he provides a detailed discussion of theories of theodicy, the argument from freedom, and the religious turn to God, in which the author explores the traces of the discovery of God's goodness, justness, and love in connection with the malum experiences in ancient mythology and biblical traditions.

Eucharist as a Celebration of Forgiveness Francis J. Moloney, SDB, 2017 An in-depth study of the history and theology of the Eucharist as primarily a celebration of forgiveness rather than as a tool for exclusion and the ethical consequences that arise from such a study.

The Resurrection in Karl Barth R. Dale Dawson, 2017-05-15 Karl Barth repeatedly spoke of the centrality and unparalleled significance of the resurrection of Jesus Christ for his theological understanding, yet a clear grasp of its nature and scope in Barth continues to find little expression in scholarly literature. This book seeks to draw out the theological substance and systematic implications of Barth's thinking on this theme. Barth's mature understanding of the resurrection concentrates upon the transition from the objective achievement of reconciliation culminating in the crucifixion and death of Jesus Christ to its subjective appropriation in the life of the believer all within a thoroughly christological context The resurrection may be described as the way of the crucified Lord to others and is for Barth the essential and efficient link between christology proper and the extension of Christ's saving work to others

Creatures of Possibility Ingolf U. Dalferth, 2016-11-15 A Prominent Theologian Explores What It Means to Be Human Preeminent scholar and theologian Ingolf Dalferth offers mature reflections on what it means to be human a topic at the forefront of contemporary Christian thought Dalferth argues that humans should be defined not as deficient beings who must compensate for the weaknesses of their biological nature by means of technology morals media religion and culture but as creatures of possibility He understands human beings by reference to their capacity to live a truly humane life Dalferth explores the sheer gratuitousness of God's agency in justifying and sanctifying the human person defining humans not by what we do or achieve but by God's creative and saving action In the gospel we are set free to interact with the world and creation

Crucifixion-Resurrection Edwyn C. Hoskyns, Francis N. Davey, 2004-10-05 Crucifixion Resurrection is the posthumous work of one of the great theological partnerships Sir Edwyn Hoskyns the pioneer of biblical theology in England and Noel Davey his student in whom he found the ideal literary collaborator It was conceived as the theological sequel to their first joint work The Riddle of the New Testament whose influence on generations of students has been incalculable Crucifixion Resurrection is concerned with the theology and ethics of the New Testament It offers a detailed exposition of the various New Testament interpretations of Christ's death penetrating to the heart of the message Christianity has to offer the world and plumbing spiritual depths which the Church rarely sounds today Present New Testament scholarship may have a more extensive technical equipment but does not necessarily come to better theological conclusions indeed the authentic Christian humanism of Hoskyns and Davey may speak to our time even more forcibly than to their own Crucifixion

Resurrection has been edited by Gordon S Wakefield who completed the manuscript with the help of lectures left by Noel Davey Wakefield has also provided a substantial biographical account of the two authors The Resurrection Effect Transforming Christian Life and Thought Kelly, Anthony J., 2014-04-10 What difference should the resurrection of the crucified Jesus make to Christian thought to our sense of the cosmos and our understanding of humanity itself Despite the centrality of the resurrection in the New Testament and the Creed the practical answer of many Christians might be not much In this light Anthony Kelly sets out to affirm the resurrection as the living center of Christian life and the basis for its theological methods and themes Without the resurrection he writes hope would be a repressive optimism or an accommodation to routine despair Acknowledging that the resurrection like a work of art eludes any single point of view Kelly shows why it remains the key to God's relationship to Jesus and ourselves the most critical horizon from which to grasp the meaning and pattern of life and the basis of our ultimate hopes Resurrection, Discipleship, Justice Thorwald

Lorenzen, 2003 This book explores the resurrection of Jesus Christ as the foundational event for Christian faith for the Christian church and for Christian ethics It argues that the resurrection is a relational event aiming at the establishing of justice This is illustrated by discussing the interrelationship between the resurrection and selected social ethical challenges race class and gender equality the ordination of women ecological justice and the relationship of Christianity to other religions The book seeks to argue that Christian faith grounded in the resurrection of Christ needs to be concerned with unmasking injustice and implementing justice The first two chapters engage with contemporary liberal and evangelical theologians contending that the resurrection of Christ is a real and relational event Chapters three and four suggest that resurrection faith implies a commitment to justice Jesus was killed for justice related causes and by raising Jesus from the dead God affirmed Jesus vision of life and at the same time defeated the estranging powers of death Chapters five and six illustrate the history changing nature of the resurrection by discussing its effect on history and society Humanity's ethnic economic and gender class divisions the dignity of womanhood the ecological challenge and our relationship to other religions are discussed Chapter seven reasons that international Christian discipleship is the most appropriate way of responding to the resurrection of the crucified Christ and as such to implement what justice requires Thorwald Lorenzen has taught and preached in Europe the United States Asia and in Australia For over 20 years he was Professor of Systematic Theology and Ethics at the International Baptist Theological Seminary in Ruschlikon Zurich Switzerland Since 1995 he has been the Senior Minister of the Canberra Baptist Church in Australia's Capital City He is active in ecumenical evangelical and justice concerns He is a lecturer in Systematic Theology at St Mark's National Theological Center School of Theology Charles Sturt University Whitley College The Baptist College of Victoria and at the University of Melbourne

Crucified and Risen: Sermons on the Death, Resurrection, and Ascension of Christ John Calvin, 2020-02-24 To call the arrest trial scourging and crucifixion of Jesus Christ a miscarriage of justice is true as far as it goes but it does not go far enough Christ's death on the cross was not an accident but as his resurrection attests was accomplished according to the sovereign loving will of God by which sinners can be reconciled to the One who made them and can pass by grace from death to life In this memorable set of sermons which date from 1557 to 1558 Calvin chief pastor of the Genevan church offers a sensitive reading of Matthew's account of Christ's passion death and resurrection The preacher's focus however is not so much on the events themselves as on their significance on what he calls the fruit and efficacy of Christ's redemptive work What in practical terms is the import of the Easter message for the life of faith Calvin's answer has vital implications not only for what we believe but for the way we live serve worship and pray
