Rccg Bible Study Manual:

The African Christian Diaspora Afe Adogame, 2013-04-04 Informative guide offering interpretation and analysis of African immigrant Christianities in Western societies and their impact on the wider local global religious scene Religion and the Making of Nigeria Olufemi Vaughan, 2016-12-09 In Religion and the Making of Nigeria Olufemi Vaughan examines how Christian Muslim and indigenous religious structures along with the legacies of British colonial rule have provided the essential social and ideological frameworks for the construction of contemporary Nigeria Topographies of African Spirituality Afe Adogame, Ebenezer Obadare, Wale Adebani, 2025-01-31 This book explores African spirituality inside and outside of religion investigating African traditions and perceptions in the study of spirituality across Africa and the African diaspora It provides an interdisciplinary reflection on key issues in the field and sheds light on everyday experiences In particular the volume celebrates the work and mentorship of Professor Jacob K Olupona a leading figure in the study of African spiritualities religions in Africa and methodological approaches to the study of religion With chapters by an impressive range of scholars from institutions across Africa Europe and North America this book makes a valuable empirical and theoretical contribution to the development of African religious studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license Spirit and Power Donald E. Miller, Kimon H. Sargeant, Richard Flory, 2013-08-15 An exploration of the global growth and social and political impact of Pentecostalism Excellence, 2005 Discipleship in a Digital Age Emmanuel Elendu, 2017-07-03 Discipleship in a Digital Age is an inspired spiritual and Christian lifestyle guidebook that exhorts present day believers to rekindle a spirit of mentorship and discipleship such that the church can become strengthened in a day where direction and leadership is often lacking WestBow Editorial Review Discipleship in a Digital Age aims at teaching or instructing Christians to personal and practical ways of living for the Lord daily in a digital age It is a discovery a talent hunt that laces traditional discipleship blueprints with the reality of today's demanding moments of technology and Internet It uses the basic tenets of discipleship to model the Christian man's approach to life in the face of our changing culture it emphasizes the need for mentoring training and sustainable weaning and learning in the wake of Christian engagement without due process to ministry assignment Christianity and Controversies over Homosexuality in Contemporary Africa Ezra Chitando, Adriaan van Klinken, 2016-05-12 Issues of homosexuality are the subject of public and political controversy in many African societies today Frequently these controversies receive widespread attention both locally and globally such as with the Anti Homosexuality Bill in Uganda In the international media these cases tend to be presented as revealing a deeply rooted homophobia in Africa fuelled by religious and cultural traditions But so far little energy is expended in understanding these controversies in all their complexity and the critical role religion plays in them Complementing the companion volume Public Religion and the Politics of Homosexuality in Africa this book investigates

Christian politics and discourses on homosexuality in sub Saharan Africa The contributors present case studies from various African countries from Nigeria to South Africa and from Cameroon to Uganda focusing on Pentecostal Catholic and mainline Protestant churches They critically examine popular Christian theologies that perpetuate homophobia and discrimination but they also discuss contestations of such discourses and emerging alternative Christian perspectives that contribute to the recognition of sexual diversity social justice and human rights in contemporary Africa

Nigerian Pentecostalism and Development Richard Burgess, 2020-04-06 This book examines the contributions both intentional and unintentional of Nigerian Pentecostal churches and NGOs to development studying their development practices broadly in relation to the intersecting spheres of politics economics health education human rights and peacebuilding In sub Saharan Africa Pentecostalism is fast becoming the dominant expression of Christianity but while the growth and civic engagement of these churches has been well documented their role in development has received less attention The Nigerian Pentecostal landscape is one of the most vibrant in Africa Churches are increasingly assuming more prominent roles as they seek to address the social and moral ills of contemporary society often in fierce competition with Islam for dominance in Nigerian public space Some scholars suggest that the combination of an enchanted worldview an emphasis on miracles and prosperity teaching and a preoccupation with evangelism discourages effective political engagement and militates against development However Nigerian Pentecostalism and Development argues that there is an emerging movement within contemporary Nigerian Pentecostalism which is becoming increasingly active in development practices This book goes on to explore the increasingly transnational approach that churches take often seeking to build multicultural congregations around the globe for instance in Britain and the United States Nigerian Pentecostalism and Development Spirit Power and Transformation will be of considerable interest to scholars and students concerned with the intersection between religion and development and to development practitioners and policy makers working in the region

Women in Yoruba Religions Oyèrónké Oládém?, 2022-07-19 Uncovers the influence of Yoruba culture on women s religious lives and leadership in religions practiced by Yoruba people Women in Yoruba Religions examines the profound influence of Yoruba culture in Yoruba religion Christianity Islam and Afro Diasporic religions such as Santeria and Candombl placing gender relations in historical and social contexts While the coming of Christianity and Islam to Yorubaland has posed significant challenges to Yoruba gender relations by propagating patriarchal gender roles the resources within Yoruba culture have enabled women to contest the full acceptance of those new norms Oyeronke Olademo asserts that Yoruba women attain and wield agency in family and society through their economic and religious roles and Yoruba operate within a system of gender balance so that neither of the sexes can be subsumed in the other Olademo utilizes historical and phenomenological methods incorporating impressive data from interviews and participant observation showing how religion is at the core of Yoruba lived experiences and is intricately bound up in all sectors of daily life in Yorubaland and abroad in the diaspora

Memory and Recovery in Times of Crisis

Fiona Larkan, Fiona Murphy, 2017-11-09 This book presents a social scientific reading of the challenges of memory and recovery in times of crisis Drawing on different interpretations of what constitutes crisis this collection uses lenses of economics identity and commemoration to question how memory and recovery is being constituted through larger discourses of political claims of moving forward healing and identity Memory and Recovery in Times of Crisis examines how memory is dis or re interred through social processes and further how recovered memories are challenged or legitimized It also presents a set of questions that will stimulate further reflections on what kind of role understandings of memory of crisis can play in recovery Given the world we find ourselves living in in 2017 a world subject to multiple intersecting crises how we understand the dynamics of memory and recovery is a pressing issue indeed This book will appeal to both scholars and students of anthropology and sociology
