OECD Skills Outlook 2023 Skills for a Resilient Green and Digital Transition OECD,2023-11-06 Skills are vital for building resilient economies and societies By helping individuals develop a diverse range of skills and empowering them to apply these skills effectively skills policies play a crucial role in responding to emerging threats such as environmental degradation and harmful applications of technologies used to collect generate and exchange information This edition of the Skills Outlook highlights the importance of supporting individuals in acquiring a wide range of skills at varying levels of proficiency to promote economic and social resilience Additionally the report acknowledges the role of attitudes and dispositions in enabling skills development and effective skills use It also emphasises the need for policy makers to monitor the costs associated with policies aimed at promoting the green and digital transition and how the transition affects inequalities Training opportunities that respond to emerging labour market needs and efforts to facilitate their uptake can promote a just and inclusive green and digital transition In turn education systems that equip young people not only with skills but attitudes to manage change can ensure that the green and digital transition is sustainable in the longer term

Landscapes of Lifelong Learning Policies across Europe Sebastiano Benasso,Dejana Bouillet,Tiago Neves,Marcelo Parreira do Amaral,2022-05-24 This open access book explores different landscapes of Lifelong Learning policies LLP producing case based examinations of their institutional discursive and relational dimensions Across Europe young people develop their life courses amidst diverse living conditions and are confronted with a variety of institutional and structural arrangements that impact on their opportunities in education and labour Considering the relevance of LLP in shaping those opportunities the chapters draw from multi level mixed methods research and offer original insights on the interplay of discourses and governance patterns in the processes of policy making and deliverance The book yields noteworthy insights into the widely differing realities across the European landscape and also into the diverging ways young people deal with and actively participate in LLP

OECD Skills Studies Do Adults Have the Skills They Need to Thrive in a Changing World? Survey of Adult Skills 2023 OECD,2024-12-10 The 2023 Survey of Adult Skills a product of the OECD Programme for the International Assessment of Adult Competencies PIAAC provides a comprehensive overview of adults literacy numeracy and adaptive problem solving skills skills that are fundamental for personal economic and societal development These key information processing skills provide the foundation for access to employment higher wages and continuous learning while enabling individuals to navigate the complexities of their personal and civic lives A total of 31 countries and economies mostly OECD members participated in the 2023 survey As 27 of these countries also participated in the previous cycle of the Survey of Adult Skills the data provide valuable insights into how literacy and numeracy skills have evolved over the past decade This publication presents the state of adult skills and their evolution over the last decade and explores the relationship between these skills and economic and social outcomes It highlights the importance of developing and maintaining skills in today's dynamic world Education, Competence Development and Career Trajectories Sabine Weinert, Gwendolin Josephine Blossfeld, Hans-Peter Blossfeld, 2023-04-13 This Open Access book presents the results of an interdisciplinary research program to utilize data from the multicohort German National Educational Panel Study NEPS which included over 100 000 participants in six nationally representative panel studies. Renowned researchers from the fields of sociology, psychology, educational science, economics and survey methodology have used the longitudinal data for their substantive and/or methodological questions and present important results of their research projects. This edited volume contains contributions from the following four topics: 1. Competence Development, Individual Characteristics, Learning Environments and other Contextual Factors; 2. Educational Transitions and Pathways, Influencing Factors and Outcomes; 3. Vocational Training and Labour Market; and 4. Individuals with Migration Background. It provides essential insights for researchers, postdocs, PhD students and university students of different scientific disciplines interested in educational sciences as well as for policy makers who have to deal with educational problems in modern societies. Measuring the Digital Economy: A New Perspective OECD, 2014-12-08 This report presents indicators traditionally used to monitor the information society and complements them with experimental indicators that provide insight into areas of policy interest.

OECD Skills Studies: Skills Matter Further Results from the Survey of Adult Skills OECD, 2016-06-28 In the wake of the technological revolution that began in the last decades of the 20th century, labour market demand for information processing and other high-level cognitive and interpersonal skills is growing substantially. Resources in Education, 2001 OECD Skills Outlook 2013: First Results from the Survey of Adult Skills OECD, 2013-10-08 This first OECD Skills Outlook presents the initial results of the OECD Survey of Adult Skills which evaluates the skills of adults in 22 OECD and 2 non-OECD partner countries. International Encyclopedia of Adult Education L. English, 2016-04-30 The Encyclopedia of Adult Education is the first comprehensive reference work in this important and fast-growing field and is an invaluable resource for adult educators who research and teach in the fields of higher education, work in community-based settings or practise in public or private organizations. Its 170 articles, written by an international team of contributors from over 17 countries, detail the research and practice of the field from its emergence as a separate discipline to the present day, covering key concepts, issues and individuals and providing a cutting-edge summary of ongoing debates across a wide range of perspectives, from self-directed learning to human resource development. Entries are arranged A-Z and extensively cross-referenced with detailed bibliographies for each topic to facilitate further research. Learning to Read in a Digital World Mirit Barzilai, Jenny Thomson, Sascha Schroeder, Paul van den Broek, 2018-08-15 With digital screens becoming increasingly ubiquitous in the lives of children, from their homes to their classrooms, understanding the influence of these technologies on the ways children read takes on great importance. The aim of this edited volume is to examine how advances in technology are shaping children's reading skills and development. The chapters in this volume explore the influence of various aspects of digital texts the child's cognitive and motivational skills and the child's environment on reading development in digital contexts Each chapter draws upon the expertise of scientists and researchers across countries and disciplines to review what is currently known about the influence of technology on reading how it is studied and to offer new insights and research directions based on recent work
