Rapport Emily Alison, Laurence Alison, 2020-07-30 Laurence Alison is one of my academic heroes He does what every writer longs to do He makes the difficult clear without losing his rigour Malcolm Gladwell They are quietly revolutionising the study and practice of interrogation Their findings are changing the way law enforcement and security agencies approach the delicate and vital task of gathering human intelligence Guardian Get what you want from even the most difficult characters All of us have to deal with difficult people Whether we're asking our neighbour to move a fence or our boss for a pay rise we can struggle to avoid arguments and get what we want Laurence and Emily Alison are world leaders in forensic psychology and they specialise in the most difficult interactions imaginable criminal interrogations They advise and train the police security agencies the FBI and the CIA on how to deal with extremely dangerous suspects when the stakes are high After 30 years work and unprecedented access to 2 000 hours of terrorist interrogations they have developed a ground breaking model of interpersonal communication This deceptively simple approach to handling any encounter works as well for teenagers as it does for terrorists Now it's time to share it with the world Rapport reveals that every interaction follows four styles Control the lion Capitulate the mouse Confront the Tyrannosaurus and Co operate the monkey As soon as you understand these styles and your own goals you can shape any conversation at will And you'll be closer to the real secret how to create instant rapport

Het verband tussen niet-auditdiensten en auditkwaliteit. Le rapport entre les services non-audit et la qualité de l'audit ICCI, 2014-04-07 De hoofddoelstelling van deze studie is te onderzoeken of er een verband bestaat tussen niet auditdiensten en de auditkwaliteit op de Belgische auditmarkt De studie wordt opgevat in twee delen In het eerste deel wordt een beknopt historisch overzicht van het regelgevend kader ten aanzien van niet auditdiensten gegeven Vervolgens wordt de evolutie en de samenstelling van de erelonen bestudeerd voor zowel audit als niet auditdiensten in België over de periode 2008 2010 en wordt er een vergelijking gemaakt met evoluties in het buitenland Uit de analyse van de samenstelling van de erelonen voor niet auditdiensten in België blijkt dat nagenoeg de helft hiervan uit belastingadviesopdrachten wordt gegenereerd Uiteindelijk worden de empirische studies die internationaal het verband behandelen tussen de erelonen van niet auditdiensten en auditkwaliteit besproken In het tweede deel wordt nagegaan of er daadwerkelijk een verband bestaat tussen niet auditdiensten en de auditkwaliteit op de Belgische auditmarkt Een uitgebreide toetsing laat de onderzoekers toe te concluderen dat er weinig empirische ondersteuning is voor de veronderstelling dat niet auditdiensten een impact hetzij positief hetzij negatief hebben op de auditkwaliteit L'objectif principal de cette étude est de déterminer s'il existe un lien entre les services non audit et la qualité de l'audit sur le marché belge de l'audit L'étude se compose de deux parties La première partie présente un bref historique du cadre réglementaire des services nonaudit Ensuite l'étude se concentre sur l'évolution et la composition des honoraires facturés au cours de la période 2008 2010 pour les services d'audit et non audit en Belgique et établit une comparaison avec les développements internationaux Il ressort de l'analyse de la composition des honoraires pour les services non audit en Belgique que pratiquement la moitié de ces honoraires sont issus de missions de conseils fiscaux Finalement les études empiriques qui traitent au niveau international du lien entre les honoraires pour les services non audit et la qualité de l'audit sont abordées La deuxième partie examine l'existence d'un lien entre les services non audit et la qualité de l'audit sur le marché belge de l'audit Les résultats d'une analyse tendue permettent aux chercheurs de conclure qu'il existe très peu de soutien empirique dans l'hypothèse que les services non audit ont un impact qu'il soit négatif ou positif sur la qualité de l'audit

Rapport and the Discursive Co-Construction of Social Relations in Fieldwork Encounters Zane Goebel, 2019-08-19 In accounts of ethnographic fieldwork and textbooks on ethnography we often find the notion of rapport used to describe social relationships in the field Frequently rapport between researcher and researched is invoked as a prerequisite to be achieved before fieldwork can start or used as evidence to judge the value and robustness of an ethnography With few exceptions and despite regular pleas to do so ethnographers continue to avoid presenting any discursive evidence of what rapport might look like from an interactional perspective In a sense the uncritical acceptance of rapport as a fieldwork goal and measure has helped hide the discursive work that goes on in the field In turn this has privileged ideas about identity as portable rather than portable and emergent and reports of social life as more important than how such reports emerge Written for all those who engage or plan to engage in ethnographic fieldwork this collection examines how social relationships dialogically emerge in fieldwork settings

Reimagining Rapport Zane Goebel, 2021-01-18 To do ethnography a researcher must have rapport with research subjects But what is rapport Ethnography and ethnographic methods have increasingly become a feature of social inquiry in general and sociolinguistics in particular and rapport is generally considered a prerequisite for fieldwork And yet unlike related terms such as communication and phatic communion this concept has remained largely unexamined Reimagining Rapport turns a critical eye to the use of the term rapport across disciplines The collection analyzes the very idea of rapport both exploring how it has been shaped by historical forces and actors within sociocultural anthropology and questioning its usefulness Rather than viewing the term as simply denoting a type of positive social relationship that needs to be formed between researcher and consultant before research can begin this book invites us to reimagine rapport theoretically methodologically and meta methodologically Zane Goebel and other leading sociolinguists challenge readers to think about how rapport has been constructed within these disciplines and ultimately to see rapport as an emergent co constructed social relationship that is actively built during situated multimodal encounters The contributors collectively examine the role of ideology and mediation in the construction of rapport and argue that reconceptualizing research subject relationships is essential for establishing more sophisticated ways of understanding interpreting and representing research context A valuable resource for scholars and students of sociolinguistics and linguistic anthropology as well as for others engaged in ethnographic fieldwork Reimagining Rapport is the first collection to provide an in depth
