The Faure Song Cycles Stephen Rumph, 2020-09-29 Gabriel Fauré's modalities offer an inexhaustible variety of style and expression that have made them the foundation of the French art song repertoire. During the second half of his long career, Fauré composed all but a handful of his songs within six carefully integrated cycles. Fauré moved systematically through his poetic contemporaries, exhausting Baudelaire's Les fleurs du mal before immersing himself in the Parnassian poets. He would set nine poems by Armand Silvestre in swift succession, 1878-84; seventeen by Paul Verlaine, 1887-94; and eighteen by Charles Van Lerberghe, 1906-14. As an artist deeply engaged with some of the most important cultural issues of the period, Fauré reimagined his musical idiom with each new poet and school, and his song cycles show the same sensitivity to the poetic material. Far more than Debussy, Ravel, or Poulenc, he crafted his song cycles as integrated works, reordering poems freely and using narrative, key schemes, and even leitmotifs to unify the individual songs. The Faure Song Cycles explores the peculiar vision behind each synthesis of music and verse, revealing the astonishing imagination and insight of Fauré's musical readings. This book offers not only close readings of Fauré's musical works but an interdisciplinary study of how he responded to the changing schools and aesthetic currents of French poetry. Collected materials by Jan van der Hoeven Jan van der Hoeven, 1870

Claude Simon Jean H. Duffy, Alastair B. Duncan, Formerly Reader in History and Philosophy of Science and Technology Alastair Duncan, 2002-01-01 This collection of essays celebrates the work of the French Nobel prize winning novelist Claude Simon. Scholars reconsider the fifty years of Simon's fiction in the light of his large-scale autobiographical novel Le Jardin des Plantes, 1997. From a variety of perspectives, postmodernist, psychoanalytic, aesthetic, chapters reflect on the central paradox of Simon's work: his writing and rewriting of an experience of war so disruptive and traumatic that words can never be adequate to communicate it. Harper's New Monthly Magazine, 1892 A Manual of Materials, Aids and Techniques for the Teaching of Spanish to English-speaking Children El Paso Public Schools, 1955 Harper's New Monthly Magazine Henry Mills Alden, Frederick Lewis Allen, Lee Foster Hartman, Thomas Bucklin Wells, 1892 Important American periodical dating back to 1850 "Material Women, 1750-1950" Maureen Daly Goggin, 2017-07-05 With the volume's global perspective and comparative framework, this collection contributes to the ongoing scholarly examination of consumption by taking the topic of women, material culture, and consumption into new arenas. The essays explore the connections between consumption and subjectivity they build upon and complicate the idea that consumption as a form of meaning-making is key to the construction of gendered, classed, and national identities. Providing a cross-cultural perspective on consumption, the essays are historically specific case studies. While some essays examine women's consumption in a range of Anglophone and Francophone locations, primarily in Britain, France, Australia, Canada, and the US, other essays on Chinese, Senegalese, Indian, and Mexican women's consumption, particularly as it relates to fashion and design, provide a comparative framework that will recalibrate ongoing discussions about consumption and domesticity, dress and identity, and desire and subjectivity. In addition, to its focus on gender and consumption this volume addresses gender and collecting exploring the tensions between accumulation and systematic collecting Also examined is the way in which the display of collected objects in Impressionists paintings in mass produced illustrations in the glass cases of museums and department stores participates in the construction of particular identities as well as serving as a kind of value producing material practice

Child Welfare Practice with Immigrant Children and Families Alan Dettlaff,Rowena Fong,2014-06-11 Children in immigrant families represent nearly one fourth of all children living in the United States As this population of children has increased so has their representation among children involved in child welfare and related systems Once immigrant families come to the attention of these systems they often have multiple and complex needs that must be addressed to ensure children s safety and well being Culturally competent practice with Latino Asian and African immigrants requires that professionals understand the impact of immigration and acculturation on immigrant families to conduct adequate assessments and provide interventions that respond appropriately to their needs Professionals also need to be familiar with federal and state policies that affect immigrant families and how those policies may affect service delivery At the system level child welfare agencies need to educate and train a culturally competent workforce that responds appropriately to children and families from diverse cultures This book addresses these critical issues and provides recommendations for the development of culturally competent assessment intervention and prevention activities in child welfare agencies This information can be used as a resource by child welfare administrators practitioners and students to improve the child welfare system s response to immigrant children and families and promote culturally competent practice This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Public Child Welfare

Material Bernini Evonne Levy,Carolina Mangone,2016-04-14 Bringing together established and emerging specialists in seventeenth century Italian sculpture Material Bernini is the first sustained examination of the conspicuous materiality of Bernini s work in sculpture architecture and paint The various essays demonstrate that material Bernini has always been tied whether theologically geologically politically or in terms of art theory to his immaterial twin Here immaterial Bernini and the historiography that sustains him is finally confronted by material Bernini Central to the volume are Bernini s works in clay a fragmentary record of a large body of preparatory works by a sculptor who denied any direct relation between sketches of any kind and final works Read together the essays call into question why those works in which Bernini s bodily relation to the material of his art is most evident his clay studies have been configured as a point of unmediated access to the artist s mind to his immaterial ideas This insight reveals a set of values and assumptions that have profoundly shaped Bernini studies from their inception and opens up new and compelling avenues of inquiry within a field that has long remained remarkably self enclosed
