Peacebuilding, Constitutionalism and the Global South Kajit Bagu (John Paul), 2019-07-05 This book presents the case that liberal constitutionalism in the global South is a legacy of colonialism and is inappropriate as a means of securing effective peace in regions that have been subject to recurrent conflict The work demonstrates the failure of liberal constitutionalism in guaranteeing peace in the postcolonial global South It develops an alternative more compelling constitutionalism for peacebuilding in conflicted regions This is based on constitutionalism that recognises plurality as a major feature in the global South Drawing on events in Nigeria it develops a constitutional model based on Cognitive Justice which could deliver peace by addressing historic conceptual legal institutional and structural issues that have created social inequality and injustice The study also incorporates insights from the development of plurinational constitutions in South America The book will be an invaluable resource for researchers academics and policy makers with an interest in constitutional legal theory peacebuilding and postcolonial studies

Secular Chains Philip Connell, 2016-04-07 Secular Chains offers an original and richly contextualized account of the relationship between poetry and religious controversy between 1649 and 1745 This was a period of political conflict and intellectual upheaval in which traditional sources of spiritual authority were variously challenged and transformed This study reveals the importance of English literary culture for our understanding of this process and throws new light on the dynamics of change and continuity between the puritan revolution and the early Enlightenment Based on extensive research in both printed and manuscript sources the book combines detailed case studies of major literary figures with a sustained historical narrative linking the republican moment of the 1650s the conflicts and crises of the Restoration and the ecclesiastical politics of the early eighteenth century Milton and Dryden provide the principal focus of the first three chapters which explore the divisive issue of church settlement in the work of both writers together with the increasingly prominent rhetoric of anti clericalism and irreligion in the poetry and polemics of the later seventeenth century Subsequent chapters extend the book s argument to the embattled condition of the Church of England in the decades after 1688 and the significant contribution of contemporary literary culture to a range of religious and philosophical argument from heterodox free thinking to Newtonian natural theology Secular Chains
