Rethinking Art History Meditations On A Coy Science:

German Art History and Scientific Thought Mitchell B. Frank, 2017-07-05 A fresh contribution to the ongoing debate between Kunstwissenschaft scientific study of art and Kunstgeschichte art history this essay collection explores how German speaking art historians of the late nineteenth and early twentieth century self consciously generated a field of study Prominent North American and European scholars provide new insights into how a mixing of diverse methodologies took place in order to gain a more subtle and comprehensive understanding of how art history became institutionalized and legitimized in Germany One common assumption about early art historical writing in Germany is that it depended upon a simplistic and narrowly defined formalism This book helps to correct this stereotype by demonstrating the complexity of discussion surrounding formalist concerns and by examining how German speaking art historians borrowed incorporated stole and made analogies with concepts from the sciences in formulating their methods In focusing on the work of some of the well known fathers of the discipline such as Alois Riegl and Heinrich Wölfflin as well as on lesser known figures the essays in this volume provide illuminating and sometimes surprising treatments of art history's prior and understudied interactions with a wide range of scientific orientations from psychology sociology and physiognomics to evolutionism and comparative anatomy

The Art of Art History Donald Preziosi, 2009 This anthology is a guide to understanding art history through critical reading of the field's most innovative and influential texts focusing on the past two centuries

Theory for Art History Jae Emerling, 2019-06-06 Theory for Art History provides a concise and clear introduction to key contemporary theorists including their lives major works and transformative ideas Written to reveal the vital connections between art history aesthetics and contemporary philosophy this expanded second edition presents new ways for rethinking the methodologies and theories of art and art history The book comprises a complete revision of each theorist updated and trustworthy bibliographies on each an informative introduction about the reception of critical theory within art history and a beautifully written original essay on the state of art history and theory that serves as an afterword From Marx to Deleuze from Arendt to Rancière Theory for Art History is designed for use by undergraduate students in courses on the theory and methodology of art history graduate students seeking an introduction to critical theory that will prepare them to engage the primary sources and advanced scholars in art history and visual culture studies who are themselves interested in how these perspectives inflect art historical practice Adapted from Theory for Religious Studies by William E Deal and Timothy K Beal

Critical Terms for Art History, Second Edition Robert S. Nelson, Richard Shiff, 2010-03-15 Art has always been contested terrain whether the object in question is a medieval tapestry or Duchamp's Fountain But questions about the categories of art and art history acquired increased urgency during the 1970s when new developments in critical theory and other intellectual projects dramatically transformed the discipline The first edition of Critical Terms for Art History both mapped and contributed to those transformations offering a spirited reassessment of the field's methods and terminology Art history as a field has kept pace with debates over globalization and other social and political issues in recent years making a second edition of this book not just timely but crucial Like its predecessor this new edition consists of essays that cover a wide variety of loaded terms in the history of art from sign to meaning ritual to commodity Each essay explains and comments on a single term discussing the issues the term raises and putting the term into practice as an interpretive framework for a specific work of art For example Richard Shiff discusses Originality in Vija Celmins's To Fix the Image in Memory a work made of eleven pairs of stones each consisting of one original stone and one painted bronze replica In addition to the twenty two original essays this edition includes nine new ones performance style memory monument body beauty ugliness identity visual culture visual studies and social history of art as well as new introductory material All help expand the book's scope while retaining its central goal of stimulating discussion of theoretical issues in art history and making that discussion accessible to both beginning students and senior scholars Contributors Mark Antliff Nina Athanassoglou Kallmyer Stephen Bann Homi K Bhabha Suzanne Preston Blier Michael Camille David Carrier Craig Clunas Whitney Davis Jas Elsner Ivan Gaskell Ann Gibson Charles Harrison James D Herbert Amelia Jones Wolfgang Kemp Joseph Leo Koerner Patricia Leighton Paul Mattick Jr Richard Meyer W J T Mitchell Robert S Nelson Margaret Olin William Pietz Alex Potts Donald Preziosi Lisbet Rausing Richard Shiff Terry Smith Kristine Stiles David Summers Paul Wood James E Young

Displaying the Ideals of Antiquity Johannes Siapkis, Lena Sjögren, 2013-08-29 Displaying the Ideals of Antiquity investigates the study and display of ancient sculpture from archaeological art historical and museum studies perspectives Ancient sculptures not only give us knowledge about ancient Greek and Roman pasts but they also mediate ideals that inform modern perceptions of antiquity This book analyzes how an art historical tradition establishes and preserves an idealized view of antiquity in classical archaeology and in museum exhibitions The authors investigate how these ideals are kept alive today an approach that often is neglected in studies on ancient reception This book offers an international scope and illustrates how academic conceptual foundations influence museum exhibitions This timely volume discusses contemporary museum exhibitions of ancient sculpture and clarifies how old discourses continue to affect museum exhibitions and conceptualizations of ancient sculptures The authors analyze close to 100 museums around the world and demonstrate the ways in which ancient sculptures are mediated across Europe and the West

Vermeer's Wager Ivan Gaskell, 2000-10 Vermeer's Wager stands at the intersection of art history and criticism philosophy and museology Using a familiar and celebrated painting by Johannes Vermeer as a case study Ivan Gaskell explores what it might mean to know and use a work of art He argues that art history as generally practiced while successfully asserting certain claims to knowledge fails to take into account aspects of the unique character of works of art Our relationship to art is mediated not only through reproduction particularly photography but also through displays in museums In an analysis that ranges from seventeenth century Holland through mid nineteenth century France to artists and curators practice today Gaskell draws on his experience of Dutch art history philosophy and contemporary art criticism Anyone with an interest in Vermeer and the afterlife of his art will value this book as will all who think seriously about the role of photography in perception and the core purposes of art museums

Museum Philosophy for the Twenty-First Century Hugh H. Genoways, 2006-06-08 What underlying philosophy and mission should museums pursue in the first half of the twenty first century In Museum Philosophy twenty four authors use the lenses of a variety of disciplines to answer this essential question Museum professionals offer their answers alongside philosophers historians political scientists educators sociologists and others in a wide ranging exploration of institutions from art museums to zoos Hugh Genoway's book offers philosophical and ethical guidelines describes the ways specific institutions illustrate different philosophies examines major divisions in the museum community and explores outreach and engagement between the museum and its larger community Both established museum professionals and students of museum studies will benefit from this insightful look into the foundations and future of their field

Twelve Views of Manet's Bar Bradford Collins, 2021-01-12 Bradford Collins has assembled here a collection of twelve essays that demonstrates through the interpretation of a single work of art the abundance and complexity of methodological approaches now available to art historians Focusing on Manet's A Bar at the Folies Bergère each contributor applies to it a different methodology ranging from the more traditional to the newer including feminism Marxism Lacanian psychoanalysis and semiotics By demonstrating the ways that individual practitioners actually apply the various methodological insights that inform their research Twelve Views of Manet's Bar serves as an excellent introduction to critical methodology as well as a provocative overview for those already familiar with the current discourse of art history In the process of gaining new insight into Manet's work and into the discourse of methodology one discovers that it is not only the individual painting but art history itself that is under investigation An introduction by Richard Shiff sets the background with a brief history of Manet scholarship and suggestions as to why today's accounts have taken certain distinct directions The contributors selected to provide a broad and balanced range of methodological approaches include Carol Armstrong Albert Boime David Carrier Kermit Champa Bradford R Collins Michael Paul Driskel Jack Flam Tag Gronberg James D Herbert John House Steven Z Levine and Griselda Pollock

Museum Studies Bettina Messias Carbonell, 2012-04-23 Updated to reflect the latest developments in twenty first century museum scholarship the new Second Edition of Museum Studies: An Anthology of Contexts presents a comprehensive collection of approaches to museums and their relation to history culture and philosophy Unique in its deep range of historical sources and by its inclusion of primary texts by museum makers Places current praxis and theory in its broader and deeper historical context with the collection of primary and secondary sources spanning more than 200 years Features the latest developments in museum scholarship concerning issues of inclusion and exclusion repatriation indigenous models of collection and display museums in an age of globalization visitor studies and interactive technologies Includes a new section on relationships interactions and responsibilities Offers an updated bibliography and list of resources devoted to museum studies that makes the volume an authoritative guide on the subject New entries by Victoria E M Cain Neil G W Curtis Catherine Ingraham Gwyneira Isaac Robert R Janes Sean Kingston Barbara Kirshenblatt Gimblett Sharon J Macdonald Saloni Mathur Gerald McMaster Sidney Moko Mead Donald Preziosi Karen A Rader Richard Sandell Roger I Simon Crain Soudien Paul Tapsell Stephen E Weil Paul Williams and Andrea Witcomb The Oxford Handbook of Interdisciplinarity Robert Frodeman, 2010-06-24 This title provides a synoptic overview of the current state of interdisciplinary research education administration and management and includes problem solving knowledge that spans the disciplines and interdisciplinary fields and crosses the space between the academic community and society at large
