The Routledge Companion to African American Art History Eddie Chambers, 2019-11-12 This Companion authoritatively points to the main areas of enquiry within the subject of African American art history The first section examines how African American art has been constructed over the course of a century of published scholarship The second section studies how African American art is and has been taught and researched in academia The third part focuses on how African American art has been reflected in art galleries and museums The final section opens up understandings of what we mean when we speak of African American art This book will be of interest to graduate students researchers and professors and may be used in American art African American art visual culture and culture classes

Barbara Chase-Riboud Monumentale Christophe Cherix, Akili Tommasino, Reginald Jackson, 2023-05-30 Accompanying the largest monographic exhibition of trailblazing artist Barbara Chase Riboud's b 1939 Philadelphia work to date Barbara Chase Riboud Monumentale The Bronzes traces the full output of the artist's remarkable career from the 1950s to the present The catalogue features both celebrated and never before seen artworks highlighting the artist's groundbreaking role in the field of contemporary sculpture In addition to some fifty sculptures the book presents twenty works on paper as well as a selection of Chase Riboud's internationally acclaimed poetry It also includes excerpts from an interview with the artist conducted for the Archives of American Art at the Smithsonian Institution The catalogue offers a careful consideration of the many diverse aspects of the artist's practice and in doing so it provides unprecedented insights into her meditations on form memory and monument while revealing a rich array of global art historical and literary points of inspiration

The Arts of Leading Edward Brooks, Michael Lamb, 2024-12-02 A deeply insightful approach to cultivating leaders of character centered on the arts and humanities What does it mean to lead Whom do we consider to be leaders And how might viewing leadership through the many lenses of the humanities expand our understanding of how it is imagined represented and enacted Drawing on insights from eminent scholars in the classics philosophy religion literature history art music and theater The Arts of Leading reveals the power of the arts and humanities to unsettle common assumptions about leadership Rather than instrumentalizing the arts and humanities or reducing them to mere management resources this series of thoughtful and refreshing essays engages a litany of diverse and nuanced perspectives to uncover alternative ways of imagining and embodying leadership across different historical moral political and cultural contexts By exploring how a wide range of disciplines can illuminate and humanize complex aspects of leadership that are often obscured in a discourse hooked on reductive paradigms and quick fixes The Arts of Leading invites leaders scholars and citizens to expand their practice of leadership in our ever evolving world Superfine: Tailoring Black Style Monica L.

Miller,Andrew Bolton ,William DeGregorio,Amanda Garfinkle,2025-05-05 Superfine Tailoring Black Style traces the complex and vibrant legacy of menswear across three centuries of Black culture from today s hip hop aesthetic and popular street trends through its use during the Harlem Renaissance and the civil rights movement as a symbol of creative and political agency to its surprising origins as an imposed uniform for servants and enslaved people Organized by key characteristics of dandyism that resonate across time including presence distinction disguise and respectability this fresh interpretation of a centuries old aesthetic draws on prominent Black voices in fashion literature and art among them Dandy Wellington Amy Sherald Ik Ud and Andr 3000 Self described dandies and high fashion models feature in a stunning photo essay by artist Tyler Mitchell who also contributes evocative new photography of garments by contemporary designers such as Virgil Abloh Pharrell Williams and Grace Wales Bonner These works are shown alongside historical attire worn by Black luminaries including Frederick Douglass Alexandre Dumas p re Muhammad Ali and Andr Leon Talley Scholar Monica L Miller contextualizes these objects in her text and shows how the evolution of dandy style inspired new visions of Black masculinity that use the power of clothing and dress as a means of self expression Represent Philadelphia Museum of Art.
