Rescuing The Church From Consumerism:

Rescuing the Church from Consumerism Mark Clavier, 2013-08-01 Rescuing the Church examines how people are initiated into a consumer culture during childhood and thus drawn into pursuing a vocation as consumers by means of various quasi sacramental rites and practices The upshot of this is that the church today is composed primarily of men and women whose lives are situated more within a consumer culture than within a distinctively Christian one In order for the church to free itself the author believes it must reclaim a sacramental identity that is grounded in a narrative tradition and realized in real local worshipping communities

The Worldview of the Word of Faith Movement: Eden Redeemed Mikael Stenhammar, 2021-12-16 This volume approaches the Word of Faith as a worldview and analyses the movement through N T Wright's model for worldview analysis in order to provide necessary nuance and complexity to scholarly interpretations of the Word of Faith The reader receives insights into the movement's narrative semiotic practical and propositional dimensions which cumulatively offer a multifaceted understanding of how the Word of Faith interprets reality and engages with the world The analysis shows that there is a narrative core to Word of Faith beliefs in the form of a unique theological story with focus set on the present restoration of Eden's authority and blessings This study demonstrates how the Word of Faith operates as a distinct worldview that parses the world through the lens of faith's causative power to affect a direct correspondence between present reality and Eden's perfection The findings advance a critical and therapeutic approach that acknowledges how the worldview both strengthens and subverts Pentecostalism

Feasting in a Famine of the Word Mark W. Birkholz, Jacob Corzine, Jonathan Mumme, 2016-02-16 The Lord warns of a famine of hearing the word of the Lord Amos 8:11 Has this warning come to pass in our day There is no shortage of preachers but how often do they miss the mark in actually delivering the word of God to their hearers leaving them hungry The authors of these essays seek to equip preachers with resources to offer their hearers a rich feast from the word of the Lord Writing from a Lutheran perspective contributors from across the globe provide a fresh approach to preaching These authors represent seasoned pastors and professors as well as young scholars All are actively preaching and teaching God's word on a regular basis This book covers a wide range of topics relating to preaching from the scriptural background and hermeneutical issues to historical examples of notable preachers and also practical guides to crafting and delivering a sermon These essays will assist preachers in proclaiming God's word in a manner that provides a feast for those living in a famine stricken world

Pilgrimage of Paradoxes Mark Clavier, 2021-12-30 Winner of the 2022 Nautilus Book Award in Religion Spirituality of Western Thought 24B Mark Clavier examines a series of paradoxes that lie at the heart of Christian faith eternity and time silence and words and wonder and the commonplace In an intellectual reflection on an overnight trek on Cadair Idris in Wales and other wilderness walks he explores the oft hidden connections between faith society and nature Each reflection ranges widely through history folklore poetry philosophy and theology to consider what these paradoxes can teach us about

God ourselves and our world Drawing on the recent upsurge in interest in the personal experience of landscapes and memory this book invites readers to walk with Clavier in the Appalachians Norway Iceland the Alps and around Britain as he discovers the ways in which Christianity is profoundly earthed By weaving together nature writing memoir social commentary and theological reflection A Pilgrimage of Paradoxes uses a memorable mountain journey in the ancient landscape of Wales to draw readers into reflecting about what it means to belong Please find the study guide for this book here <https://convivium.brecon.com/a-pilgrimage-of-paradoxes> Shoppen in advent Herman Paul, 2020-01-14 Secularisatie is geen bedreigende vloedgolf maar een subtiele verandering van het individu vergelijkbaar met kerstinkopen in een winkelstraat waar adventsliederen worden genegeerd Is secularisatie een storm of vloedgolf die de kerk bedreigt Nee stelt Herman Paul in Shoppen in advent Wie secularisatie in een beeld wil vangen kan beter denken aan een gonzende winkelstraat in december De mensen zijn er zo druk met hun kerstaankopen dat ze nauwelijks acht slaan op het carillon in de stadhuistoren dat een oud Engels adventslied speelt Het beeld drukt uit dat secularisatie draait om transformatie van het zelf wie ik ben waar ik bij hoor wat ik aandacht geef en waar ik naar verlang Do You Want to Save The Church? Young J. Choe, 2016-12-08 This book attempts to inspire both church leaders and lay people through serious discussion of strategies as to how to restore the church in the midst of a struggling and declining age The author identifies the factors that have contributed to the decline of the church Choe utilizes his experience working with a struggling ministry to propose twenty four ideas and programs for the restoration of the church He calls specifically on church leaders to inspire others to come together and rebuild the church This book finds a decisive solution between Sunday pastor and Everyday pastor On Consumer Culture, Identity, the Church and the Rhetorics of Delight Mark Clavier, 2018-11-29 The Reading Augustine series presents short engaging books offering personal readings of St Augustine of Hippo s contributions to western philosophical literary and religious life Mark Clavier s On Consumer Culture Identity The Church and the Rhetorics of Delight draws on Augustine of Hippo to provide a theological explanation for the success of marketing and consumer culture Augustine s thought rooted in rhetorical theory presents a brilliant understanding of the experiences of damnation and salvation that takes seriously the often hidden psychology of human motivation Clavier examines how Augustine s keen insight into the power of delight over personal notions of freedom and self identity can be used to shed light on how the constant lure of promised happiness shapes our identities as consumers From Augustine s perspective it is only by addressing the sources of delight within consumerism and by rediscovering the wellsprings of God s delight that we can effectively challenge consumer culture To an age awash with commercial rhetoric the fifth century Bishop of Hippo offers a theological rhetoric that is surprisingly contemporary and insightful R.E.S.C.U. E.: a Church Navigational System for Transformation J. Lindsay Sadler Jr. DMin, 2015-09-10 R E S C U E is a response to the whys in church life Why do the majority of churches have only half or less members attend on the Lords Day Why have approximately 40% of pastors been involved in affairs and 50% of their marriages ended in divorce Why is there infighting in the church and why are there so many church splits Why are there so many pharisaical people in churches Why is the power of the Holy Spirit absent in churches Why is Biblical truth watered down Why is pastor or elder leadership not trusted Why do congregations think they can lead themselves Why isnt the church reaching more lost souls Why is church discipline off most church radars Why is the average percentage of giving per member only between 1 and 3 percent Why is a pastors tenure only two to four years Why do churches fear change After 33 years of ministry overseeing all sizes of congregations I have dealt with those whys If churches do not address the whys many will sink into the ecclesiastical graveyard or remain afloat in stagnate waters I believe R E S C U E can navigate churches to be transformed into an impactful and fruitful body of believers that glorifies our Lord The Sociology of Garth Ball,2025-07-29 Rhythms of Reformation explores how the COVID 19 pandemic exposed the cracks in a Sunday centric consumer driven church culture and awakened a call to return to Christ s original heartbeat of discipleship It argues that the pandemic was not a disaster to lament or an interruption to endure but a catalyst for a profound reformation of the church Blending personal story with theological reflection this book follows the author s leadership journey through the pandemic engaging a broad range of literature to offer insight for navigating Spirit led seasons of change These seasons however need not be limited to times of crisis they can become intentional patterns that leaders cultivate shaping churches continually around the biblical priority of disciple making This book is especially helpful for current and emerging church leaders who sense the winds of change but lack a clear blueprint for navigating them
