Researching Higher Education Society For Research Into Higher Education:

Researching Higher Education Tight, Malcolm, 2012-08-01 The first edition of Researching Higher Education has been a very helpful resource for those trying to make sense of the field of higher education Malcolm Tight has accomplished a tour de force by updating and expanding that edition This volume includes up to date analyses of recent higher education publications and thoughtful reflections on methodology and theory in higher education research Requisite reading for novices to the field but also for the experienced researchers trying to keep abreast of the developments in the field Professor Jeroen Huisman Director International Centre for Higher Education Management School of Management University of Bath UK The most comprehensive overview of research on higher education available Researching Higher Education provides a multidisciplinary perspective of the field This book will be valuable for students thinking about research as well as anyone wanting a perspective on research directions on higher education Philip G Altbach Monan Professor of Higher Education Director Center for International Higher Education Boston College USA This authoritative book couples an overview of the principal current areas of research into higher education with a guide to the processes involved in undertaking such research Comprehensively updated throughout this new edition examines the current state of higher education research with brand new case studies and has been expanded to include North American work The book also includes Analysis of published research by topic method theory and level Detailed discussion of selected examples of published research Suggestions on under researched topics Guidance on publication outlets Consideration is given to research design and questions funding progressing research projects publication and dissemination Researching Higher Education will be of value to students and academics researching the higher education experience as well as appealing to experienced researchers seeking an overview or insights into new areas and alternative methods

Researching Higher Education Jennifer M. Case, Jeroen Huisman, 2015-10-14 Research on higher education has yielded many insights that have improved our theoretical and practical understanding but there are still many themes that continue to appear on research agendas provoking renewed focus on these complex questions and problems Researching Higher Education explores these issues examining topics such as equity in access and participation the relationship between higher education and society how and what students learn and the professional development of academics In this volume contributors from Europe Australia Africa and the US critically address ongoing issues with a set of key questions to guide their analysis What do we know What are the missing links and gaps in past research What are the implications for further research Key themes include The nature of higher education Higher education and society Staff and students in higher education Teaching and learning Curriculum and assessment Critical engaging and international in scope Researching Higher Education will be a valuable guide for academics researchers postgraduate students and policy makers in the higher education community

The Development of Higher Education Research in Europe Barbara M. Kehm, Christine Musselin, 2013-10-30 Though the book is a contribution to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the Consortium of Higher Education Researchers CHER it is not just about the history of the organisation as such The contributions provide an account of the emergence of higher education as a field of study and research in Europe its institutionalisation and its relationships to higher education policy and practice Furthermore higher education research in Europe is contrasted to and contextualised by the example of higher education research and scholarship in Australia The book is useful as an account about the emergence and development of higher education research as a field of study and research in Europe It will be an interesting and insightful read for all scholars and young researchers wanting to know about higher education research but also for scholars in fields like history of science disciplinary differentiation institutionalisation of fields of knowledge and research Theory and Method in Higher Education Research

Malcolm Tight, Jeroen Huisman, 2015-09-29 Theory and Method in Higher Education contains contributions to international debates regarding the application and development of theory and methodology in researching higher education Higher Education Research Methodology Ben Kei Daniel, Tony Harland, Navé Wald, 2024-08-01 With new chapters and updated content throughout this second edition of Higher Education Research Methodology is an essential guide to systematic inquiry into higher education Providing practical and theoretical guidance for students topics covered include ontology and epistemology as well as research design approaches and methods of data collection New to this edition are two brand new chapters on conceptual and theoretical frameworks and research justification as well as a comprehensive revision of the chapter on engaging with academic literature Throughout the book there is a keen focus on quality in both the analysis and evaluation of research and new models are proposed to help the new researcher The authors provide advice as well as constructive critique of research methods and in turn offer a new contribution to the theories of research methodology Looking beyond the immediate higher education environment the book concludes by examining the challenges of getting work published and providing guidance on how to do this successfully Thoroughly revised this new edition of Higher Education Research Methodology will be of interest to postgraduate students academic developers and experienced academics from a wide variety of disciplines Theory and Method in Higher Education Research Jeroen Huisman, Malcolm Tight, 2021-11-12 This volume presents international perspectives on the application and development of theory and methodology in researching higher education Topics discussed include critical race theory the use of communities of practice theory participant ethnography and decolonization using indigenous principles Academic Research And Researchers Brew, Angela, Lucas, Lisa, 2009-10-01 This book is concerned with how individual researchers experience and respond to this scenario It brings together research and scholarship examining the socio political context of university research and explores how researchers perceptions and identities are changed by political and cultural agendas for research Being Scholarly Liezel Frick, Vernon Trafford, Magda Fourie-Malherbe, 2016-01-05 In this discussion of higher education studies in South Africa we attempt to illustrate how higher education studies in South Africa reflect both global and local trends and concerns and how the publications by Eli Bitzer over the course of his involvement and dedication to the field for thirty years have contributed to our understanding of this field The Sage Handbook of Nursing Education Carol Hall, Mary Gobbi, Kathryn Parker (Whitcomb), Patricia Yoder-Wise, 2024-05-01 In the past several years a revival of research devoted to nursing education has emerged This emergence has changed the way many educators engage in their practice of working with learners and learners have come to expect that they will have a rich learning experience designed to develop new or enhance prior knowledge skills and attitudes The SAGE Handbook of Nursing Education provides a detailed map of the current discipline with a carefully selected team of international contributors offering the latest thinking about education in nursing across key areas This handbook will be a key resource for academic educators as well as graduate and postgraduate learners

Postgraduate Research Engagement in Low Resource Settings Atibuni, Dennis Zami, 2019-09-27 The general academic progression and particularly research engagement of postgraduate students is characterized by various problems such as high dropout rates longer completion times low graduation rates and high repetition or retake rates This means that there are far fewer students pursuing postgraduate studies at tertiary institutions and universities than there are at the lower levels of education Yet there is growing demand for postgraduate education given its strong projected association with socioeconomic transformation at national and international levels among developed and developing countries alike Postgraduate Research Engagement in Low Resource Settings sets out to garner strategies for fostering efficiency of research conduct among the students and faculty so as to enhance high quality output for the envisaged personal societal national and international socioeconomic transformation Covering a range of topics such as intellectual property mental health and quality assurance this book is ideal for research supervisors higher education faculty librarians educators administrators researchers academicians and students
