Restoring Justice Daniel W. Van Ness, Karen Heetderks Strong, Jonathan Derby, L. Lynette Parker, 2022-05-30 Restoring Justice An Introduction to Restorative Justice Sixth Edition offers a clear and convincing explanation of restorative justice a movement within criminal justice with ongoing worldwide influence The book explores the broad appeal of this vision and offers a brief history of its roots and development as an alternative to an impersonal justice system focused narrowly on the conviction and punishment of those who break the law Instead restorative justice emphasizes repairing the harm caused or revealed by criminal behavior using cooperative processes that include all the stakeholders The book presents the theory and principles of restorative justice and discusses its four cornerpost ideas Inclusion Encounter Repair and Cohesion Multiple models for how restorative justice may be incorporated into criminal justice are explored and the book proposes an approach to assessing the extent to which programs or systems are actually restorative in practice The authors also suggest six strategic objectives to significantly expand the use and reach of restorative justice and recommended tactics to make progress towards the acceptance and adoption of restorative programs and systems The Generalist Approach to Conflict Resolution Toran Hansen, 2012-12-21

This book outlines the generalist approach to conflict resolution. The approach was inspired by the generalist approach to social work but has now emerged in the fields of conflict resolution and peace studies. Essentially, the approach considers conflict resolution practice and scholarship very broadly. Generalist scholarship and practice are contrasted against specialized ways of conducting conflict resolution whereby practitioners become well versed in one mode of practice or a specific theoretical orientation to scholarship. Several theories provide a foundation for this inclusive approach: conflict transformation, eco-systemic scholarship, the strengths perspective, and a new theory of social conflict, the theory of differences. The generalist approach is intended to provide a way for conflict resolution and peace studies scholars/practitioners to help diverse parties address complex conflicts at various levels: personal to international. Generalist scholars/practitioners assist parties to comprehensively and holistically address these conflicts in a multi-layered, multi-level fashion but they must be comfortable with ambiguity, monitor intervention complexity, and give parties control over how their conflicts are addressed. Ultimately, this may make parties more committed to their conflict interventions and outcomes.

Restorative Justice in India R. Thilagaraj, Jianhong Liu, 2017-07-04 This book systematically introduces the practice of restorative justice in India as a resource for comparative criminal justice research. Restorative justice focuses on the rehabilitation of offenders through reconciliation with victims and with the community at large. It has gained momentum as a justice reform movement in Western countries within the past three decades, and it is estimated that up to one hundred countries worldwide utilize restorative justice practices. Within Western countries, it is seen largely as a response or alternative to the perceived deficiencies of the existing criminal justice system. India has a rich tradition of restorative justice, and this work introduces both the traditional basis and contemporary practices of this justice system in India in a comprehensive and systematic way. The contributions to this work cover three main areas: I. The Tradition of Restorative Justice in India; II. The Development of Restorative Justice in India; III. Restorative Justice Practices in India. The third part, Practices, covers special topics including Restorative Justice and the Court, Restorative Justice and Incarceration, Restorative Justice and Juveniles, and Restorative Justice and Women. The book covers the full range of the issues of restorative justice in India and will be a highly valuable resource book for researchers and upper-level graduate students interested in alternative justice models in general, comparative criminology, and criminal justice in India specifically. A landmark volume in the history of restorative justice and criminology in India. Many outstanding scholars in this collection outline the Indian experience of restorative justice from which the world has much to learn. John Braithwaite, Australian National University Fundamentals of Forensic Victimology Monika Thakur, Chander Mohan Gupta, Eric Lambert, 2025-09-29 This edited volume delves into the multifaceted field of victimology, exploring its historical roots, theoretical frameworks, and contemporary applications. It navigates through various forms of victimization, from intimate violence to stranger violence, shedding light on their prevalence and underlying causes With a focus on psychological aspects and victim profiling it equips readers with insights crucial for understanding and addressing the impact of crime on individuals and society Moreover this book scrutinizes pressing issues such as sex trafficking and sexual offenses offering comprehensive analyses and potential avenues for intervention It also examines the role of forensic victimology in the legal arena highlighting its significance in securing justice for victims Ideal for scholars practitioners and students in criminology psychology and law this book serves as an invaluable resource for anyone seeking a deeper understanding of victimization and its implications for society

Restorative Practice Meets Social Justice Anthony H. Normore, Antonia Issa Lahera, 2017-01-01 Restorative Practice Meets Social Justice Un silencing the Voices of At Promise Student Populations is a collection of pragmatic urban school experiences that focus on restorative approaches situated in the context of social justice By adopting this approach researchers and practitioners can connect and extend long established lines of conceptual and empirical inquiry aimed at improving school practices and thereby gain insights that may otherwise be overlooked or assumed This holds great promise for generating refining and testing theories of restorative practices in educational leadership and will help strengthen already vibrant lines of inquiry on social justice The authors posit that a broader conceptualization of social and restorative justice adds to extant discourse about students who not only experience various types of daily oppression in US schools but also regularly live on the fringes of society Chapters are written by a combination of researchers and practicing school leaders who believe in the power of healing and restoring relationships within school communities as opposed to traditional punitive structures The dynamic approaches discussed throughout the book urge school leaders teachers school community members and those who prepare administrators to look within and build bridges between themselves and the communities in which they serve

A Study of Psycho-correction Discourse in Community Corrections Under Restorative Justice from the Perspective of Individuation Jie Zheng, 2024-12-31 This book enriches the theory of individuation within Systemic Functional Linguistics providing an interdisciplinary theoretical model for the study of individuation which represents a direct contribution to the study of the theory of individuation It explains how the counselors in community corrections use social semiotic resources to educate the offenders and correct their deviant psychologies and behaviors and how the offenders use social semiotic resources to achieve their own transformation and reintegration demonstrating the applicability and social explanatory orientation of the theory of individuation The book subsequently demonstrates the inherent relationship between the concept of restorative justice and the discourse practice of psycho correction in community corrections expanding the research scope of Systemic Functional Linguistics and Legal Linguistics in the process It also provides a reference guide for improving the practice of psycho correction in community corrections and can be used for language training of the counselors

Restorative Justice Today Katherine S. van Wormer, Lorenn Walker, 2012-08-17 Restorative Justice Today Applications of Restorative Interventions takes a hard look at the issues and concepts surrounding restorative justice and current restorative practices used in a broad range of areas today In a time when the cost of prisons and jails is on the rise resulting in more offenders being kept out of the community this timely and contemporary book exposes readers to a range of restorative practices that can be implemented The authors renowned experts in the area of restorative justice provide information not found in other restorative justice texts A Culture of Engagement Cathleen Kaveny, 2016-03-01

Religious traditions in the United States are characterized by ongoing tension between assimilation to the broader culture as typified by mainline Protestant churches and defiant rejection of cultural incursions as witnessed by more sectarian movements such as Mormonism and Hassidism However legal theorist and Catholic theologian Cathleen Kaveny contends there is a third possibility a culture of engagement that accommodates and respects tradition It also recognizes the need to interact with culture to remain relevant and to offer critiques of social political legal and economic practices Kaveny suggests that rather than avoid the crisscross of the religious and secular spheres of life we should use this conflict as an opportunity to come together and to encounter challenge contribute to and correct one another Focusing on five broad areas of interest Law as a Teacher Religious Liberty and Its Limits Conversations about Culture Conversations about Belief and Cases and Controversies Kaveny demonstrates how thoughtful and purposeful engagement can contribute to rich constructive and difficult discussions between moral and cultural traditions This provocative collection of Kaveny s articles from Commonweal magazine substantially revised and updated from their initial publication provides astonishing insight into a range of hot button issues like abortion assisted suicide government sponsored torture contraception the Ashley Treatment capital punishment and the role of religious faith in a pluralistic society At turns masterful and inspirational A Culture of Engagement is a welcome reminder of what can be gained when a diversity of experiences and beliefs is brought to bear on American public life Justice for Victims Inge Vanfraechem, Antony Pemberton, Felix Ndahinda, 2014-06-27 Justice for

Victims brings together the world s leading scholars in the fields of study surrounding victimization in a pioneering international collection This book focuses on the current study of victims of crime combining both legal and social scientific perspectives articulating both in new directions and questioning whether victims really do have more rights in our modern world This book offers an interdisciplinary approach covering large scale political victimization terrorist victimization sexual victimization and routine victimization Split into three sections this book provides in depth coverage of victims rights transitional justice and victims perspectives and trauma resilience and justice Victims rights are conceptualised in the human rights framework and discussed in relation to supranational international and regional policies The transitional justice section covers victims of war from those caught between peace and justice as well as post conflict justice The final section focuses on post traumatic stress connecting psychological and anthropological perceptions in analysing collective violence mass victimization and trauma This book addresses challenging and new issues in the field of victimology and the study of transitional and restorative justice As such it will be of interest to researchers practitioners and students interested in the fields of victimology transitional justice restorative justice and trauma work
