How the Germans Told the Story

The news was first broken to the world at 6.35 a.m. by German over- seas radio.

An announcer broke into a Prague message and called: "Attention! Attention! Invasion began in the early hours of Tues- day morning."

About ten minutes later, the German overseas news agency, quoted by Reuter, broadcast these details:

"Early this morning, numerous landing craft and light warships were observed in the area between the mouth of the Seine and the eastern coast of Normandy.

"At the same time paratroops were dropped from numerous air- craft on the northern tip of the Normandy peninsula.

AIRFIELDS ATTACK

"It is believed that these para- troops have been given the task of capturing airfields in order to facilitate the landing of further paratroops.
