Rereading Merleau Ponty Essays Beyond The Continental Analytic Divide:

Rereading Merleau-Ponty Lawrence Hass, Dorothea Olkowski, 2000 No Marketing Blurb Phenomenology and Intercultural Understanding Kwok-Ying Lau, 2016-09-29 This book approaches the topic of intercultural understanding in philosophy from a phenomenological perspective. It provides a bridge between Western and Eastern philosophy through in-depth discussion of concepts and doctrines of phenomenology and ancient and contemporary Chinese philosophy. Phenomenological readings of Daoist and Buddhist philosophies are provided; the reader will find a study of theoretical and methodological issues and innovative readings of traditional Chinese and Indian philosophies from the phenomenological perspective. The author uses a descriptive rigor to avoid cultural prejudices and provides a non-Eurocentric conception and practice of philosophy. Through this East-West comparative study, a compelling criticism of a Eurocentric conception of philosophy emerges. New concepts and methods in intercultural philosophy are proposed through these chapters. Researchers, teachers, postgraduates, and students of philosophy will all find this work intriguing, and those with an interest in non-Western philosophy or phenomenology will find it particularly engaging. Ethnographies of Breastfeeding Tanya Cassidy, Abdullahi El Tom, 2020-05-27 Breastfeeding is an intimate and deeply rooted bodily practice as well as a highly controversial sociocultural process which invokes strong reactions from advocates and opponents. Touching on a wide range of issues such as reproduction, sexuality, power, and resources, and maternal and infant health, the controversies and cultural complexities underlying breastfeeding are immense. Ethnographies of Breastfeeding features the latest research on the topic. Some of the leading scholars in the field explore variations in breastfeeding practices from around the world. Based on empirical work in areas such as Brazil, West Africa, Darfur, Ireland, Italy, France, the UK, and the US, they examine the cross-cultural challenges facing mothers feeding their infants. Reframing the traditional nature/culture debate, the book moves beyond existing approaches to consider themes such as surrogacy, the risk of milk banks, mother-to-mother sharing networks facilitated by social media, and the increasing bio-medicalization of breast milk, which is leading its transformation from process to product. A highly important contribution to global debates on breast milk and breastfeeding. Resistance, Flight, Creation Dorothea Olkowski, 2000 Thirteen women at the forefront of philosophy locate new feminist points of view within the discipline by rigorously engaging works of contemporary French philosophy. In so doing, they both transform the standard practices of the field and carve out new territory. These writers amplify the work of feminist philosophers such as Simone de Beauvoir, Luce Irigaray, and Sarah Kofman in ways that are both stylistically and substantively creative. They also appropriate for radical feminist use the works of male philosophers such as Michel Foucault, Gilles Deleuze, Maurice Merleau-Ponty, and Jean-Paul Sartre. The essays illustrate the manner in which feminist philosophers bypass traditional methodology in favor of a disciplinary freedom characterized by fluid methodologies best exemplified in Beauvoir's work and by the employment of imaginative forms including the autobiographical and the poetic. The modes of inquiry used here range variously from psychoanalysis and existentialism to deconstruction post structuralism and newly resurgent phenomenology This volume also contains a comprehensive bibliography of feminist thinkers who are enacting French philosophy in English German and French

Merleau-Ponty and Buddhism Gereon Kopf, Jin Y. Park, 2009-08-13 Merleau Ponty and Buddhism explores a new mode of philosophizing through a comparative study of Maurice Merleau Ponty s phenomenology and philosophies of major Buddhist thinkers such as Nagarjuna Chinul Dogen Shinran and Nishida Kitaro Challenging the dualistic paradigm of existing philosophical traditions Merleau Ponty proposes a philosophy in which the traditional opposites are encountered through mutual penetration Likewise a Buddhist worldview is articulated in the theory of dependent co arising or the middle path which comprehends the world and beings in the third space where the subject and the object or eternalism and annihilation exist independent of one another The thirteen essays in this volume explore this third space in their discussions of Merleau Ponty s concepts of the intentional arc the flesh of the world and the chiasm of visibility in connection with the Buddhist doctrine of no self and the five aggregates the Tiantai Buddhist concept of threefold truth Zen Buddhist huatou meditation the invocation of the Amida Buddha in True Pure Land Buddhism and Nishida s concept of basho In his philosophical project Merleau Ponty makes vigorous efforts to challenge the boundaries that divide philosophy and non philosophy the East and the West experience and concepts the subject and the object and body and mind Combining the Eastern philosophical tradition of Buddhism with Merleau Ponty s phenomenology Merleau Ponty and Buddhism offers an intercultural philosophy in which opposites intermingle in a chiasmic relationship and which brings new understanding regarding the self and the self s relation with others in a globalized and multicultural world

Deleuze and Queer Theory Chrysanthi Nigianni, 2009-01-30 This exciting collection of work introduces a major shift in debates on sexuality a shift away from discourse identity and signification to a radical new conception of bodily materialism Moving away from the established path known as queer theory it suggests an alternative to Butler s matter representation binary It thus dares to ask how to think sexuality and sex outside the discursive and linguistic context that has come to dominate contemporary research in social sciences and humanities Deleuze and Queer Theory is a provocative and often militant collection that explores a diverse range of themes including the revisiting of the term queer a rethinking of the sex gender distinction as being implied in Queer Theory an exploration of queer temporalities the non re reading of the homosexual body desire and the becoming queer of the Deleuze Guattari philosophy It will be essential reading for anyone interested not just in Deleuze s and Guattari s philosophy but also in the fields of sexuality gender and feminist theory

Postmodern Philosophy and the Scientific Turn Dorothea E. Olkowski, 2012-04-23 A groundbreaking interdisciplinary approach to the study of consciousness Beautifully written engaging throughout and captivating Claire Colebrook The Pennsylvania State University What can come of a scientific engagement with postmodern philosophy Some scientists have claimed that the social sciences and humanities have nothing to contribute except perhaps peripherally to their research Dorothea E Olkowski shows that mathematics itself the historic link between science and philosophy plays a fundamental role in the development of the worldviews that drive both fields Focusing on language its usage and expression of worldview she develops a phenomenological account of human thought and action to explicate the role of philosophy in the sciences Olkowski proposes a model of phenomenology both scientific and philosophical that helps make sense of reality and composes an ethics for dealing with unpredictability in our world Emancipatory Thinking Elaine Stavro,2018-05-11 Most scholars have focused on The Second Sex and Simone de Beauvoir's fiction concentrating on gender issues but ignoring her broader emancipatory vision Though Beauvoir's political thinking is not as closely studied as her feminist works it underpinned her activism and helped her navigate the dilemmas raised by revolutionary thought in the postwar period In Emancipatory Thinking Elaine Stavro brings together Beauvoir's philosophy and her political interventions to produce complex ideas on emancipation Drawing from a range of work including novels essays autobiographical writings and philosophic texts Stavro explains that for Beauvoir freedom is a movement that requires both personal and collective transformation Freedom is not guaranteed by world historical systems material structures wilful action or discursive practices but requires engaged subjects who are able to take creative risks as well as synchronize with existing forces to work towards collective change Beauvoir Stavro asserts resisted the trend of anti humanism that has dominated French thinking since the 1960s and also managed to avoid the pitfalls of voluntarism and individualism In fact Stavro argues Beauvoir appreciated the impact of material socio economic institutional forces without forgoing the capacity to initiate Applying Beauvoir's existential insights and understanding of embodied and situated subjectivity to recent debates within gender literary sociological cultural and political studies Emancipatory Thinking provides a lens to explore the current political and theoretical landscape

Merleau-Ponty's Existential Phenomenology and the Realization of Philosophy Bryan A. Smyth,2013-12-19 Bringing to light the essential philosophical role of Marxism within Merleau Ponty's reinterpretation of transcendental phenomenology this book shows that the realization of this project hinges methodologically upon a renewed conception of the proletariat qua universal class specifically that it rests upon a humanist myth of incarnation which substantiated by Merleau Ponty's notion of heroism locates an objective historical purposiveness in the habituated organism of the modern subject Foregrounding the phenomenological priority of history over corporeality in this way Smyth's analysis recovers the militant character of Merleau Ponty's existential phenomenology It thus sheds critical new light on his early thought and challenges some of the main parameters of existing scholarship by disclosing the intrinsic normativity of his basic methodological commitments Merleau-Ponty, Interiority and Exteriority, Psychic Life and the World Dorothea Olkowski,James Morley,1999-09-09 Explores Merleau Ponty's approach of taking the phenomenon of the body out of the dualistic constraints of interior and exterior and the consequences thereof
