Rescuing Sprite Mark Reed Levin, 2007 A radio talk show host describes his family's relationship with a remarkable rescue dog named Sprite a beautiful loving and gentle animal whose deteriorating health taught the entire family a lesson in friendship love joy and grief

Rescuing Sprite Mark R. Levin, 2009-10-13 Rescuing Sprite is a stunningly intimate look at the love between a family and a dog one that movingly shows in Levin's words that in the end we humans are the lucky ones A portion of the proceeds of this book will be donated to animal shelters

Thinking with the Familiar in Contemporary Literature and Culture 'Out of the Ordinary', 2019-09-24 What grows out of the ordinary This volume focuses on that which has been regarded as ordinary self evident and formulaic in literary and cultural phenomena such as diasporic cuisine pet adoption narratives Prairie writing romance between stepsiblings the program of a political party and everyday shopping in poetry The book argues that by engaging with that which is perceived as ordinary we also gain understanding of how otherness becomes defined and constituted The volume seeks new ways to access that which might lie in between or beyond the opposition between exploitation and emancipation and contests the hegemonic logic of revealing oppression and rebuilding liberation in contemporary critical theory to create new ways of knowing which grow out of the ordinary

From Baghdad to America Jay Kopelman, 2010-02-06 Lieutenant Colonel Jay Kopelman won the hearts of readers everywhere with his moving story of adopting an abandoned puppy named Lava from a hellish corner of Iraq He opened the door for other soldiers to bring dogs home and in From Baghdad to America Kopelman once again leads the pack with his observations on the emotional repercussions of war Here for the first time Kopelman holds nothing back as he responds to the question Why did you save a dog instead of a person The answer reveals much about his inner demons and about the bigger picture of Operation Iraqi Freedom He talks about what it's like to return to the States and examines the shocking statistics to come out of Iraq Depression suicide alcohol abuse and broken relationships are at record highs for the men and women who serve there Kopelman credits Lava with helping him to endure combat and the pain of war as well as helping him deal with the surprising difficulties of returning to everyday life Civilians have a hard time understanding what being a Marine means and the adjustment to living among them is hard for these soldiers This book attempts to shed light on that for all readers
