

Reservations Playbook

Version 1.0

The Reservations Playbook is a manual specially designed to equip all existing as well as pre-opening hotel associates of Marriott International in India, Sri Lanka, Nepal, Bhutan and Bangladesh region about the reservations department and its important processes and procedures. This document contains information needed on a day to day basis to familiarize the associates from the induction to basic trainings and LSOPs for the department.

There is an index which mentions the topics and also mentions the buddies who could assist along the way of this learning.

The Reservations department is one of the vital departments of the Sales and Marketing team. The reservations department handles all reservation requests for accommodation, interacts with the customers and constantly monitors the room status. The role of the reservation department is not limited to making a reservation, it also maintains records of the hotel occupancy, which help in planning sales and marketing strategies, etc. The reservations department plays an important function for both the guest and the hotel.

With our fundamentals in place, we can strive to execute our roles efficiently and with pride leading to our vision of being the World's Favorite Travel Company!
