Resources in Education , 1994-07 Residential Children's Homes and the Youth Justice System Julie Shaw, 2014-06-03 This book explores the factors at the individual institutional and systemic levels which contribute to children s home residents coming to the attention of the youth justice system and the consequent implications for policy and practice Perspectives are drawn from both young people and professionals in the care and youth justice systems

Challenging the Conventional Wisdom about Residential Care for Children and Youth Bruce B. Henderson, 2023-12-01 Is residential care inherently harmful This book argues that this conventional wisdom is wrong and is itself harmful to a significant number of children and youth The presumptive view is based largely on overgeneralizations from research with infants and very young children raised in extremely deprived environments A careful analysis of the available research supports the use of high quality residential care as a treatment of choice with certain groups of needy children and youth not a last resort intervention The nature of high quality care is explored through child development theory and research and two empirically supported models of care are described in detail It will be of interest to all scholars and students of child development child welfare youth work social work and education as well as professionals working within these fields Evidence-Based Social Work Practice With Families Jacqueline Corcoran, PhD,2000-02-07 Empirically informed practice is increasingly important as managed health care environments demand accountability in mental health and health care services In this comprehensive text Dr Corcoran makes implementing evidence based clinical practice easy She reviews the most common problem areas social workers encounter Each chapter assesses the family treatment outcome literature addresses different theoretical orientations summarizes the most current clinical research studies and provides information on standardized self report instruments and their validity Topics include child physical abuse and neglect ADHD sexual abuse eating disorders schizophrenia caregiving of the elderly and more Services for Homeless Veterans and Housing Loans for Native American Veterans United States.
